BIG MAJORITY FOR COOK BILL

Greater Pittsburgh Measure Passes House by 156 to 10.

BEFORE THE SENATE

Final Legislative Action on the Annexation of Allegheny to Take Place Tomorrow.

M'AFEE IS NOT A CANDIDATE

THE PITTSBURGH GAZETTE BUREAU.
HARRISBURG, PA., April 4.

The Cook Greater Pittsburgh bill passed the house finally at the morning session. It was messaged to the senate and sent to the municipal affairs committee, from which it was reported without change at the afternoon session. It was read a first time in the senate tonight, recommitted for minor amendments, none being important, and again reported to the senate. The bill will be given a second reading tomorrow, at which time the title will be amended. It will be read a third time and passed finally Thursday morning and returned to the house for concurrence in the senate amendments. This will be the final legislative action, and the bill will then be ready for the governor.

This is the program of the Republican leaders and it is supposed to have the sanction of Mr. Bigelow and his friends. Even though Bigelow should change his mind the program will be carried out as it has the approval of Penrose and Durham. Former Senator Flinn was informed tonight that Bigelow is not satisfied with the bill in its present form, his principal objection being to the provision giving the courts the power to appoint a commission to redistrict the greater city. This he wants done by councils. Bigelow left this afternoon for Pittsburgh. Murry A. Verner and City Solicitor W. B. Rodgers remained in Harrisburg.

What Bigelow Accomplished.

"The Cook bill," said Senator Flinn this evening, "is, with the exception of the clause giving the governor the power to appoint the first mayor, the original Wilbert bill as drawn by ex-Senator John Weller. Mr. Bigelow is quoted as saying the bill embodies his views. I am glad to hear this as he has had no part in drafting the measure. The bill drawn by Mr. Rodgers, at the instance of Bigelow, was discarded and the one pending is the one approved by the Pittsburgh Republican leaders. It also has the indorsement and support of Penrose and Durham. It will be passed finally Thursday.

"So far as I am able to learn, Mr. Bigelow has accomplished but one thing by his many visits and daily interviews during the present session. He has succeeded in bottling up in the senate committee the Wilbert bill, which, if passed, would prevent trolley companies from using the Pittsburgh boulevards. In this one thing Bigelow has been entirely successful. I congratulate him."

No speeches were made for or against the Cook bill on final passage. It passed by a vote of 156 to 10. There was a division in the Allegheny county delegation, but this was expected. Francies, Henderson, Murphy and Schad of Allegheny city, voted against the bill, as did also Mr. Woodward of McKeesport.

Murphy Voted Loud.

All of the other members, (with the exception of Shenkel, who was absent), voted in the affirmative. They were Cook, Edlis, Godfrey, Smith, Kline, Heselbarth, Moore, McWhinney, Riley and Esler. The other negatives were Heister of Westmoreland, Ehrhardt of Lackawanna, Kiess and Reitmeyer of Lycoming, and Walker of Clarion.

Representative John Murphy entered the house just at the close of the roll call. He asked to be recorded, and though a single objection would have denied him the privilege, none was made. Mr. Murphy's "no" was thundered with much emphasis, but it had no bearing except to scare the page boys.

Banking Commissioner McAfee tonight emphatically contradicted the statement made this morning by a Pittsburgh newspaper to the effect that he would be a candidate for the mayoralty of the Greater Pittsburgh.

"I never thought of such a thing," said Mr. McAfee. "The story is absurd. I am not a candidate for any office, a fact which I want distinctly understood."

Ex-Senator Flinn will remain here until tomorrow and probably he will not leave until the Cook bill is passed finally Thursday.

JUDGE DUNNE HAS DEFEATED HARLAN

Chicago Democrats Have Elected Their Mayoralty Candidate by Overwhelming Plurality.

MUNICIPAL OWNERSHIP WON

[BY ASSOCIATED PRESS TO THE GAZETTE.]

CHICAGO, April 4.—After winning successively four remarkable biennial fights of independents against the regular Republican party organization here, John Maynard Harlan, son of Associate Justice Harlan of the United States supreme court, was today a loser as Republican candidate for mayor. The victor is Judge Edward F. Dunne, Democrat.

As a direct result of Judge Dunne's victory, the city is officially committed to the policy of the quickest possible cessation of private franchises for public utilities. Municipal ownership is especially threatening street car lines, valued high up in the millions.

EDWARD F. DUNNE,
Who Was Yesterday Elected Mayor of Chicago.

The Republican candidate suffered heavily from campaign attacks charging he was a political assassin. Alleged unworthy leaders of his own party, who had been thrust from office and power largely through Harlan's aggressiveness in previous campaigns, were conspicuously absent from his support. The result was painfully evident before the balloting today had been in progress an hour.

Harlan had been savagely harassed during the campaign as the reputed representative of Wall street interests intent on fastening burdensome franchise grants on the city. The Republicans, however, had figured that the voters susceptible to appeals of this kind would support the Socialist candidate, Collins, but the advocacy of immediate municipal ownership, radically voiced by Judge Dunne, out-heroded any move by Collins.

An unmistakable defection suddenly manifested today in districts where negroes are numerous gave a severe jolt to Republican campaign managers. The most plausible explanation was that Judge Dunne from the bench in years had shown an unexampled spirit of fairness toward negro men and women in exigencies when freedom from race prejudice was sorely needed.

Judge Dunne is the happy father of 13 children. This phase of the campaign was attended to by "Pap" Anson, who has an almost equally meritorious record in family matters. Anson, the old-time hero of the baseball field, was the Democratic successful candidate for city clerk.

Judge Dunne was elected by a plurality of 24,248 and received a majority of 945 of all the votes cast. He also had the distinction of receiving the greatest vote ever cast in Chicago for a candidate for the office of mayor. He was given 161,659 votes out of a total of 322,373. Mr. Harlan, the Republican candidate, received 137,411; Collins, the Socialist candidate, 20,323, and Stewart, Prohibition 2,980.

John F. Smulski, the Republican candidate for city attorney, was re-elected over his Democratic opponent by nearly 15,000 votes. The new city council will probably be Republican.

APPEAL WAS MADE FOR MRS. CHADWICK

Judge Wing Asked Suspension of Sentence Until Case Is Finally Decided.

[BY ASSOCIATED PRESS TO THE GAZETTE.]

CINCINNATI, O., April 4.—Judge Francis J. Wing, counsel for Mrs. Cassie L. Chadwick of Cleveland, appeared before the United States circuit court of appeals in this city today and moved that her sentence be stayed until that court shall have heard her appeal, or until final judgment be rendered in the court of last resort. United States District Attorney John J. Sullivan, also of Cleveland, was present as the representative of the government. After hearing the motion, Presiding Judge Lurton announced that the court will take the matter under consideration and will render an opinion tomorrow morning.

Judge Wing maintains his filing of the writ of error in and of itself in law suspends the sentence already imposed without formally asking a suspension. If the judges of the United States circuit court of appeals decide that the filing of the writ of error in itself acts as a suspension of the sentence, Mrs. Chadwick may be permitted to remain in the jail at Cleveland until judgment is passed upon her by the court of last resort, to which her case may be carried.

The appeal will not be argued in this court for some time, probably not for two months or even longer. Meantime Mrs. Chadwick will remain in confinement either in Cleveland or in Columbus.

BELGIAN BONDHOLDERS WILL FALL INTO LINE

Are Expected to Finally Come to Terms in the Settlement With Santo Domingo.

[BY PRIVATE WIRE TO THE GAZETTE.]

WASHINGTON, April 4.—State department officials expressed no concern today about reports from Antwerp that the Belgian bondholders are unwilling to agree to the president's Santo Domingo arrangement for paying the debt.

It is thought Belgium would like preferential treatment on account of the large amount of its debts in Santo Domingo, but failing in obtaining that it is thought that creditors in Belgium will finally come to the terms as agreed to by the other nations.

Although no positive plan has yet been accepted for the basis for the distribution of the Dominican customs revenues which accumulate in the City National bank of New York between the present time and the meeting of the senate next fall, a project is being considered with favor for a sifting out of the claims of all nations against Dominica by an international commission whose judgment as to the real merits of the claims shall be final.

INDIAN ON RAMPAGE.

Carlisle Graduate Killed Red Man and Wounds Others at Little Valley.

CORRY, April 4.—(Special.)—After killing one man and seriously injuring another Henry Lester, a graduate of the Indian school at Carlisle, is in jail at Little Valley. A quarrel with a sweetheart is said to have caused the trouble. Armed with a shot gun, the Indian entered a logging camp at Little Valley yesterday, and deliberately killed Levi Peters, another Indian. A second shot wounded another Indian. Others seated at the table ran for their lives, Henry firing at them as they fled. Several received slight wounds.

Deputy Sheriff Dean captured Henry 25 miles from the scene of the shooting. He made no resistance.

AUNT SUES HER NEPHEW FOR $1,200,000

NEW HAVEN, CONN., April 4.—(Special.)—Former Judge Samuel L. Bronson of this city, who was the Democratic governor of Connecticut in 1900, has been made defendant in a suit for $1,200,000 damages, brought by his aunt, Miss Susan Bronson of Waterbury, who alleges her nephew has not rendered a proper accounting of her business entrusted to him.

THOUSANDS CHEER THE PRESIDENT

Mr. Roosevelt Is Given Continuous Ovation in Passing Through Four States.

RECEPTION IN OLD KENTUCKY

[BY ASSOCIATED PRESS TO THE GAZETTE.]

ST. LOUIS, April 4.—President Roosevelt and party passed through Ohio, Kentucky, Indiana and Illinois today, and left here for the southwest. The most notable reception of the day was at Louisville, Ky., where the president spent two hours. From Louisville to St. Louis, the train slackened down at a dozen or more towns and at most of them great crowds were at the depot cheering as long as the train was in sight. The president made three speeches en route. They were at Milltown, Ind., Huntingburg, Ind., and Mount Vernon, Ill. At East Junction, near Princeton, Ind., where a change of engines was made, the president jumped down from the rear platform of the train to shake hands with a number of employes of the railroad shops there. The train ran through Princeton slowly to give the president an opportunity to hastily review several hundred school children who had been assembled near the railroad tracks. At Huntingburg the president said:

American Stock Is Good.

"It is a great pleasure to catch this glimpse of you and greet you. There is one thing I am always impressed with in going through this country, and that is that down at bottom, east or west, north or south, wherever you meet the average American, he is a pretty good American. (Cheers and applause.) In greeting all of you, I want to say that while I am particularly glad to see the men and the women, I think I am even more glad to see the children. I think the American stock is a middling good one, and I do not want to see it die out. I see here men who wear the button that shows that they fought in the great war. They have left us a legacy not only of how to do our duty in war, but in peace. Let us of the younger generation try to keep up their standard." (Cheers and applause.)

LOUISVILLE, KY., April 4.—President Roosevelt today delivered a notable address to a crowd which extended for two blocks on the east and west sides of the speakers' stand, which jammed intersecting streets and overran the broad lawns. Not more than one-fifth of those who saw the president could hear what he said, but they cheered him heartily nevertheless, interruptions of applause occurring almost momentarily.

One United Country.

The president's welcome to Kentucky was typical of the state and his reference in his speeches to a "united country," his greeting to the confederate veterans as "my comrades" and his allusion to the wearer of the gray who bore aloft at the head of the procession of escort the "flag of one united country" greatly pleased those who could hear him.

The president was in Louisville but two hours, but not a moment was lost. His reception in the residence section of the city was cordial, as he passed through the business sections it was thoroughly demonstrative of hearty good will, and at the speaking stand and on the short drive over the business section it was an assured ovation. The president was greatly pleased at the cordiality of the crowds and was much touched over the presentation of three magnificent souvenirs reminiscent of Abraham Lincoln.

GLENWOOD SPRINGS, COL., April 4.—During his hunting trip in Colorado, President Roosevelt will keep in constant touch with Secretary Loeb and his official staff at Glenwood. This will be accomplished by means of the wireless telegraph under the supervision of the military arm of the government. Plans to this end are being perfected here by army officers. Two expert signal service telegraph operators have been detailed to accompany President Roosevelt into the wilderness. An army automobile will carry the party as far as the roads will permit, after which the machinery will be transferred to horses.

BRIDGE PEOPLE GAIN A POINT

Brownsville Company Is Granted Rule on the Secretary of War.

OPPOSED TO RAISING

First Case Ever Brought to Test the Government's Authority.

DECISION WILL BE IMPORTANT

THE PITTSBURGH GAZETTE BUREAU.
Room 10, Postal Building.
WASHINGTON, D. C., April 4.

Justice Anderson of the supreme court of the District of Columbia, today granted a rule on the secretary of war to show cause why the injunction prayed for by the Monongahela Bridge Company of Brownsville, Pa., should not be granted. The rule is returnable on April 21, when the case will be argued.

The injunction applied for by the company is to prevent the war department from carrying out the order issued in August, 1904, requiring that the bridge shall be raised to a clearance of 52 feet above the pool level and that the channel span be made 250 feet long. This case is being watched with great interest by the engineers of the war department, as the decision will be of the greatest importance in fixing the authority of the secretary of war to regulate bridges over navigable streams. It is the first case of the kind ever instituted against the government.

The bridge company claims the improvements they are required to make under the department's order and which must be completed by August 1, 1905, under a penalty of $5,000 a day, will cost $200,000, which is more than the par value of the capital stock of the company. If the courts decide that the expense of these changes are to be considered the decision will have an important effect in many other cases.

Secretary Taft did not appear to be worried over the institution of proceedings by the bridge company. When he was seen this afternoon he laughingly said:

"No injunction has yet been served upon me, but since I read the papers this morning I have been expecting it. When I am notified of the action of the court, I suppose I will have to appeal to the attorney general to defend me. Evidently they do not want me to issue any bridge orders."

Representative H. K. Porter called at the war department today to see Secretary Taft on a matter of business. When asked his opinion of the bridge litigation, he said:

"This case is of the greatest importance and upon the issue depends a great deal of property. I think it is proper that the question should be settled by the court, and it should be taken to the highest court of the land. I understand that the Union Bridge Company of Pittsburgh intends asking for an injunction also, and will proceed along the same lines as those taken by the Monongahela Bridge Company."

TRIED TO TAKE PAPERS.

Assignee of Lorain (O.) Bank Made Accused Cashier Return Memoranda of Stock Transactions.

LORAIN, O., April 4.—(Special.)—Cashier Kaneen, Assistant Bookkeeper H. B. Walker and Teller Dana S. Walker, the alleged wreckers of the Citizens Savings bank, this morning opened the vault doors for Assignee Fanchor. Cashier Kaneen seized some sheets of typewritten manuscript covering stock transactions, which he placed in his pocket.

The assignee demanded the papers, which Kaneen said were private property, and he was told that he must not remove anything from the bank which bore even the scratch of a pen and Kaneen returned them. Kaneen is said to have lost heavily on steel stocks. Money found in the safe amounted to $3,800.

SUFFOCATED AT PRAYER.

Woman Lost Her Life from Escaping Gas While Kneeling Before an Altar at Her Home.

NEW YORK, April 4.—(Special.)—Kneeling in prayer before a small altar in her bedroom, her rosary beads clasped in her hands and pictures of religious subjects looking down upon her from the walls, Margaret Miles, 70 years old, was overcome by gas this morning. When her body was found in the afternoon it leaned against the altar in a position which indicated she had attempted to escape, but too feeble to do so, had resolved to pray as a final hope.

Gas was escaping in a small volume and it is believed when turning it out on Monday night the women accidentally turned the jet too far.

PLATE GLASS COMPLAINT IS SET FOR A HEARING

WASHINGTON, April 4.—(Special.)—The Pittsburgh Plate Glass Company vs. the Pennsylvania, Baltimore & Ohio and Vanderbilt lines, 16 in number, will be heard by the interstate commerce commission in Washington on May 15. The complainants allege there is so much difference between the classification of imported plate glass and domestic glass that the tariff is virtually nullified by the railway rates.

HELLO GIRL WINS MULTI-MILLIONAIRE

NEW YORK, April 4.—(Special.)—As a climax of a romance begun at the telephone board in the Grand Union hotel last fall, Miss Anna Bennett, formerly an operator there, is to become the bride of E. R. Whitney of Montreal, reported to be worth $20,000,000. The marriage will take place soon after Easter. Miss Bennett is 22 years old. Her fiancee is close to 70.

HYDE TURNS ON HIS FOES

Will Try to Force Alexander and Tarbell from the Equitable.

ALLEGES TREACHERY

Declares President of Society Has Basely Betrayed Trust Left Him by Founder.

DEFIES CABAL AGAINST HIM

[BY ASSOCIATED PRESS TO THE GAZETTE.]

NEW YORK, April 4.—A persistent report, emanating from an apparently reliable source and so far not denied says Vice President James H. Hyde and his friends in the Equitable Life Assurance society will assume the aggressive. According to the report the Hyde party will force James W. Alexander and Gage E. Tarbell to retire from the presidency and second vice presidency respectively of the society, at the meeting of the board of directors to be held next Thursday.

This report was strengthened tonight by the fact that both parties to the controversy gave out certain letters and statements bearing on the questions in dispute. Mr. Hyde's contribution formally charges President Alexander with "gross breach of trust to my father and me."

Mr. Alexander's contribution is his letter to the state superintendent of insurance, defining his position and acquiescing in the compromise plan for the mutualization of the society. He declares his consent was given with reluctance because he felt he could not take the responsibility of rejecting even that measure of control by the policy-holders.

Second Vice President Gage E. Tarbell is the target of an open statement given out by Alexander S. Bacon, counsel for certain policy-holders, which declares Tarbell is the real leader of the Alexander forces and brings up the charge that Tarbell, just prior to the beginning of the present controversy, sold back to the Equitable for $125,000 all his interests in renewals or future business.

Blow Fell Suddenly.

In Mr. Hyde's letter to the directors he says he was called into the conference with President Alexander February 2, when but two business days intervened before the directors were to meet to elect officers and was told that a large number of officers of the Equitable society, under Mr. Alexander's leadership and initiative, had signed a memorial addressed to the directors, demanding that steps be taken which would result in placing the policy-holders in control of the corporation to the exclusion of the control. He says he was also given a legal opinion that it was the duty of the officers to bring this matter before the directors, together with a paper signed by a majority of the officers charging Mr. Hyde with personal unfitness for the office of vice president. The letter continues:

"Mr. Alexander demanded my immediate consent that my control of the company through the ownership of a majority of its capital stock be at once relinquished; that I should consent that the functions of the stock should be superceded under a reorganization through which the vote of the policy holders by proxy should select a management to control the affairs of the company, and that I should personally resign and withdraw absolutely from any connection with the control or management of the company, accompanying these demands by threats of exposure of improprieties on my part, in both personal and official conduct, and impressing on me that the movement against me personally had been so effectively organized as to be resistless.

Plan Hatched in Secret.

"The movement had been conducted in secret. So far as I have been able to ascertain no one of the 52 directors, except the officers who had been connected with its initiation, were aware of any such movement or of any of the alleged grounds on which it was conducted. Communication of knowledge of it to me was so timed as to offer me the least possible opportunity for reflection and consultation upon a situation involving not merely the major part of my fortune, but my destiny and reputation."

"I shall not undertake to discuss or palliate any personal indiscretions which may have given occasion for just criticism, but I have no hesitation in contrasting all of these with the attitude which has been taken in this matter by Mr. James W. Alexander, a man of mature years, of wide business experience and of such abilities that it is impossible he should have misconceived the solemn duties devolved upon him, under the instrument of trust executed by my father."

Mr. Hyde then discussed the deed of trust of the late Henry B. Hyde, his father, under which a majority of stock was left to him with Mr. Alexander and Gen. Fitzgerald (later succeeded by Mr. McIntyre) as trustees, and says:

Betrayed His Trust.

"Mr. Alexander is a director of the Equitable society and president of that society solely by the vote of the stock confided to his keeping by my father, and by virtue of the trust and confidence which I have reposed in him and which was almost an inheritance from my father. By this trust deed, Mr. Alexander was not only charged with the obligation to thus care for my patrimony, but he was most solemnly adjured in that deed—and he accepted the duty thus imposed—to exercise all possible influence with me, when I should attain the age of 30 years, to induce me to renew and extend the trust, thus continuing as far as might be legally possible, the control and administration of the Equitable society initiated by my father.

"On June 6, 1906, I will have attained, should I live, the age of 30 years and will then, subject to my duty to my father's expressed wish, have come into possession of my stock. Thus, shortly before the expiration of that period, Mr. Alexander, owing his existence as a director and officer of the Equitable society to his trust and to the stock confided to his care, has engaged in a secret cabal with officers under his command, and in many cases subject to his coercion, to destroy the value of the subject of his trust and destroy the reputation and future of the beneficiary.

Disguise Is Apparent.

"There has been no general claim or demand upon the part of policy-holders in the line of the present movement. There can be no long continued disguise of the true purpose of the present movement. Its purpose is to transfer the selection of the directors of the Equitable society, and its management to a coterie of men whose more immediate contact with the policy-holders would place them in a favored position to obtain the proxies of the latter, and Mr. Alexander's gross breach of trust to my father and to me with which I here solemnly charge him, has none but the most specious pretext of high motives.

"I shall not discuss any personal shortcomings of my own. That such have been charged is a sufficient reason to me for desiring to make the most absolute commitment, for an extended period, of the affairs of the Equitable society to its present high management."

The letter closes with Mr. Hyde's offer to transfer his stock vote to a board of trustees pending the adjustment of a mutualization plan.

DEMOCRAT LEADS FOR MAYOR OF ST. LOUIS

Vote Is Close and Count Is Incomplete: Women Cast Ballots at State Election in Wisconsin.

[By Associated Press to The Gazette.]

ST. LOUIS, April 5.—With 100 precincts missing out of a total of 405, Mayor Wells, Democratic nominee for re-election, is leading John A. Talty, Republican, by 774. The returns for 305 precincts gave Wells 33,719; Talty, 32,945; Lee Meriwether, Independent Public Ownership, 2,239.

From present indications this will be the most closely contested election in history of the city and neither side is claiming the victory by more than 1,000 plurality. The $9,000,000 bond issue, the proceeds of which were to have been used for municipal improvements, is generally conceded to have been defeated by a big majority.

MILWAUKEE, April 4.—Election returns received from various parts of the state up to midnight indicate that Charles P. Cary, the present state superintendent of schools, has been re-elected over Albert Salisbury by a safe majority. The law passed by the legislature two years ago took this office out of politics and provided for the election at the same time as that of the judiciary. Quite a number of women took advantage of their right of suffrage on school matters.

Bessemer Association Main Seller.

By a mistake of the type a serious omission was made yesterday in the exclusive account in The Gazette of the purchase of Bessemer pig iron by the United States Steel corporation for April delivery. The original account credited 25,000 tons of the 35,000-ton order to the Bessemer Furnace association of the Mahoning and Shenango valleys, while the outside furnaces will fill the remaining 10,000 tons.

PANAMA'S NAVY IS READY FOR DEBUT

Consists of Steam Yacht and Naphtha Launch Commanded by a Kansas Admiral.

WILL PATROL ATLANTIC COAST

[By Private Wire to The Gazette.]

NEW YORK, April 4.—The navy of our ally, the republic of Panama, now rides at anchor in the harbor of Elizabethport, N. J. The revenue fleet of the same nation is also moved there. The navy consists of the steam yacht cruiser Orienta and a naphtha tender with a steaming, or, rather gasolining, radius of eight miles. The revenue fleet consists similarly of the cruiser Orienta and her satellite.

Panama is about to make her debut as a maritime power under favorable auspices. Her naval policy is being directed, under the supervision of President Amador, by Admiral T. T. Lovelace, a native of the great American seaport of Kansas City.

The Atlantic coast line of Panama, which the Orienta is to patrol, is 450 miles long according to the latest treaties. The Orienta is only the Atlantic squadron, the Pacific being still on paper, presence of South America at one end of the republic and North America at the other making it inconvenient for one ship to patrol both coasts.

The Orienta was built by Lewis F. Nixon for E. R. Ladew of the New York Yacht club in 1901. She was rejected because she failed to meet speed requirements. She is good for 20 miles an hour just the same.

Admiral Lovelace is admirably fitted for his command by nine years of navigation in Central and South American waters, besides his experience on the Kansas seaboard. He is a veteran of as many revolutions as usually crop up in nine years, and has frequently commanded the entire navy of one state or party and sunk that of another.

Admiral Lovelace will not receive a salary, but will be allowed to use the Panama navy to trade up and down the coast for his own profit when he is not busy capturing smugglers with the aid of the Hotchkisses and the military mast or consoling them with maxims, and throwing the simple Central American Indians into convulsions with the 2,000 candle power searchlight.

ROPE JUMPING CAUSED DEATH.

Young Girl Won Championship of the County, but Her Life Was Soon Ended.

NEW ROCHELE, N. Y., April 4.—(Special.)—Although Louise Rivers, aged 11, won the honor of champion rope skipper of West Chester county this afternoon, she sacrificed her life in the New Rochelle hospital tonight. Acute appendicitis is given as the cause of death, although the attending physicians say that over-exertion and the desire to be champion are the real causes.

For a long time 200 consecutive jumps has been considered the record mark, but this afternoon Louise decided to beat that. She jumped 218 times, after which she fell over with a pain in her side.

IDENTIFIED THEIR SUITS.

Two Men Arrested, Charged With a Robbery Eight Months Ago.

When arrested the men were dressed in suits of clothes which Newman identified as some of the goods stolen from his place over eight months ago.

At Gillingham's a part of a roll of cloth, a coat and three vests were found, and at Nevergold's two vests, all of which were identified by Newman as being a part of the goods stolen from his store.

TO CLEAN M'KEESPORT.

Report That Disorderly Houses Must Go Credited to the Mayor.

It is reported that Mayor Falkenstein of McKeesport will issue orders within a day or two demanding that all houses of questionable character within the borough limits be closed and that the Sunday law be enforced to the letter, regardless of the vocation of tradesmen.

It is said that this determination on the part of the mayor follows a rumor that District Attorney Stewart had contemplated a raid of alleged violators of the law in McKeesport. While not admitting any official knowledge of illegal resorts, Mayor Falkenstein has announced himself as being determined to clean them out if such exist.

Resolution Disapproving Taxation of Corn Meal and Dairy Products Passed House of Commons.

JAPANESE FORCES PRESS NORTHWARD

Flying Column Moving Through Manchuria in the Direction of Tsitsihar.

RUSSIAN STORES DEPLETED

[Associated Press Cable to The Gazette.]

HARBIN, April 4.—Reports are revived of the movement of a Japanese flying column northward through Manchuria in the direction of Tsitsihar.

The loss and destruction of commissariat stores at Mukden, Hussitai, Tie pass, Kaiyuan and Changtufu has been a heavy deprivation to the Russian army. As a result the price of forage and provisions has considerably increased.

There is no truth in the report that the explosion of a bomb Monday in the artillery depot here killed 75 men.

ST. PETERSBURG, April 4.—War Minister Sakharoff today declared there has been no relaxation in the preparations to continue the war, but says there will be no new mobilization at present, explaining that 140,000 troops of the last mobilization have already started for the front and that instead of mobilizing new troops these will be followed by a portion of this year's conscripts.

Prince and Princess Henry of Prussia arrived at Tsarskoe-Selo this morning. At the German embassy attempts to give a political character to Prince Henry's visit were ridiculed. The princess' sisters are the empress and the Grand Duchess Sergius.

The announcement that President Roosevelt has left Washington on a vacation trip is accepted here as evidence that the efforts to draw Russia and Japan into peace negotiations have come to grief for the moment. Everything indicates that the hope of an immediate change of fortune is staked on Vice Admiral Rojestvensky, whose squadron, according to the best information, is now actually on its way to meet the Japanese.

ROME, April 4.—In the chamber of deputies today Signor Romussi, editor of the Secolo, interrogated the government on whether the opportune moment has not arrived to propose intervention in the conflict between Russia and Japan.

TERRORIST ARRESTED.

Little Doubt That There Was a Plot Directed Against the Life of Gov.-Gen. Trepoff.

ST. PETERSBURG, April 5.—The police arrested yesterday in the Nevsky Prospect a man disguised as a carriage driver, presumably belonging to the same organization as the 12 persons who were arrested last week for supposed connection with terrorist schemes.

There is little doubt that there was a plot directed against the life of Gov.-Gen. Trepoff and the latest arrest indicates that the terrorists are acting on a concerted plan with auxiliaries and lookouts to aid the actual perpetrator of the assassination.

GREGORY AT AZORES.

Lewis Nixon's Automobile Boat, Said to Have Been Built for Russia, Is at Ponta Delgoda.

PONTA DELGODA, AZORES ISLANDS, April 4.—The American gasoline automobile boat Gregory has arrived here. She will proceed tomorrow for Gibraltar and France.

It has been repeatedly asserted the Gregory was built for the Russian government but this has just as frequently been denied by those interested in the boat, who insist she is the private yacht of her constructor, Lewis Nixon, and that she is going to the Mediterranean to win the prize of $10,000 offered by a European enthusiast for the first motor boat to cross under her own power.

WHAT'S IN A NAME?

Mike Nation, Drunk, Acts Like Carrie Does When Normal.

Mike Nation, a Braddock Slav, who, when intoxicated, exhibits a mania for doing things which a lady by the same name does when she is sober, had his right arm broken yesterday morning by a number of fellow-countrymen who were endeavoring to prevent him from hurling a cobble stone through the plate glass window of the saloon of George Berosky, Eleventh street and Washington avenue, Braddock.

The police say that Nation has spent the greater portion of the last eight years serving workhouse sentences for breaking saloon windows while under too heavy burdens of drink, and that he has just been released from that institution. He is now confined in the hospital cell in the Braddock police station and will be given a hearing today.

SPLIT OVER GIFT OF ROCKEFELLER

American Board's Committee Withdraws Aid from the Protesting Body.

APPEAL TO CLERGY AT LARGE

[By Associated Press to The Gazette.]

BOSTON, April 4.—The committee of Congregational clergymen who are protesting against the acceptance by the American board of commissioners for foreign missions, of John D. Rockefeller's gift of $100,000, after conference today with the board's prudential committee, were told the latter refused absolutely to join the protestants in their movement to bring before the Congregational clergy of the country the reasons advanced for or against the acceptance of the gift.

The protestants will continue the agitation independently. Tonight they prepared a statement which will be sent to every Congregational clergyman in the United States. In part it is as follows:

No Compromise Tolerable.

"The protest rests on the conviction that the church must not stand in compromising relation to a man who in public thought represents methods that are oppressive, dangerous and wrong. We cannot disregard the effect of the association which his name, in view of facts that are widespread and notorious, unfortunately carries with it. The church cannot afford to enter into any relation that may weaken or discredit it in the fulfillment of its task.

"All the confusion arising from the literal use of the figure 'tainted money' may be brushed aside at once. Money is impersonal. It is not tained and cannot taint morally. It is by voluntary relation to the donors that moral responsibility is incurred. With the unknown or unimpeached giver the church is brought into no such conscious and deliberate relation.

"The church owes it to itself and the public conscience to acknowledge responsibility when it voluntarily enters into dealings with a donor who stands openly impeached of serious offenses which it is our duty to condemn. However formidable may be the practical difficulties in the way of exercising this responsibility, they must not obscure the ethical demand. Where shall we begin if not with the most conspicuous case that has yet been reported to our church?

Principle Is Vicious.

"Where we must end is shown by the answer of the prudential committee. We must end in the declaration of complete irresponsibility for the sources from which we accept gifts. We believe the church will never rest in this principle. It is vicious and corrupting, and impossible in practice. We cannot acquit ourselves of responsibility in receiving money, for we do produce a moral effect. 'Money talks,' and the board has done much in the past to give it a voice.

"The church cannot be blind to the growing alienation between those who have and those who have not. Its message is to the entire human family, and a deepening sense of social obligation has touched its heart. And not only human fellowship, but the interests of righteousness are at stake in the problems of trade. The battle is on between forces that are socially destructive and those that seek a finer order of justice and human opportunity.

"There is no question on which side of this contest the church should stand. It is necessary for it to be exceedingly jealous of anything that may swerve it from its own task. Every act must be avoided that seems to ally the church with the wrong side, to impede its action or to render its efforts and utterances ineffectual.

"The motives which constrain to this appeal are a deep solicitude because of the corporate evils that threaten our nation, our sense of the solemn and imperative mission of the church as the moral educator of the people and a jealous zeal lest its energy and authority be impaired by any seeming compromise with the evil it is set to condemn."

MAY INVADE CANADA.

Steel Corporation Favors Erecting $10,000,000 Plant on British Side of Detroit River or Lake Erie.

BABY TUCKER'S WONDERFUL CURE

Covered from Head to Foot with Humors—Forty Boils on Head at One Time—Doctors and Drug Bills $100—Baby Grew Worse.

CURED BY CUTICURA FOR FIVE DOLLARS

Mrs. George H. Tucker, Jr., 335 Greenfield Avenue, Milwaukee, Wis., is a grateful mother. "When six months old," she says, "my little girl weighed a pound and a half less than at birth. When one month old a scab formed on her face, spreading until it completely covered her from head to foot, followed by boils, having forty on her head at one time, and more on her body. Then her skin started to dry up, and it became so bad she could not shut her eyes to sleep. One month's treatment with Cuticura Soap and Ointment made a complete cure, and now my child is as large, strong and healthy as any child of her age. The doctor's and drug bills were over one hundred dollars, and my baby grew worse all the time. Then we spent less than five dollars for Cuticura and cured her."

CUTICURA A BLESSING

To Skin-Tortured Babies and Tired Mothers.

The suffering which Cuticura Soap and Ointment have alleviated among the young, and the comfort they have afforded worn-out and worried parents, have led to their adoption in countless homes as priceless curatives for birth humors, milk crust, scald head, eczemas, rashes and every form of itching, scaly, pimply skin, and scalp humors, with loss of hair, of infancy and childhood. Guaranteed absolutely pure.

NESBIT-THAW KNOT IS TIED

Ceremony Is Hastily Performed by the Rev. Dr. William L. McEwan.

NO VEIL, NO MUSIC, NO RICE

Evelyn Florence Nesbit and Henry Kendall Thaw were married yesterday afternoon at the parsonage of the Third Presbyterian church by the Rev. Dr. William L. McEwan. At 9 o'clock last night they left town on their honeymoon.

Remarkable haste and austere simplicity marked the wedding. There were no bridal veil, orange blossoms, showers of rice or parting compliment of old shoes. The greatest secrecy was observed in the arrangements and after the nuptial knot was tied there was no celebration.

The bridegroom came to Pittsburgh from the east last Saturday morning. In the evening he went to the Hotel Schenley and in the grill room met some of his old associates. While luncheon was being served Mr. Thaw glanced across the table and remarked that in less than a week he would be a benedict. Their host swore them to secrecy and the story of the coming nuptials was divulged to the chosen few.

EVELYN FLORENCE NESBIT.
She Was Married to Harry Kendall Thaw, in This City, Late Yesterday Afternoon.

Secret Leaked a Little.

On Sunday he attended services in the Third Presbyterian church and sat in the Thaw family pew. Somehow the news was circulated through the congregation that he was to be married before the end of the week, but those of his friends who were at the Schenley on the previous night, declared that they never breathed a word about the secret entrusted to them.

On Monday morning Miss Nesbit arrived in Pittsburgh with her chaperon, Miss Pierce. They stopped with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. J. Holman, in Oakland. On the same afternoon Mr. Thaw went to the residence of Dr. McEwan, in South Negley avenue, and arranged for the wedding. He enjoined the utmost secrecy and said that nothing elaborate was contemplated.

It was a few minutes after 5 o'clock yesterday afternoon when three carriages drove to Dr. McEwan's residence. It was the wedding party, and in strange contrast with the ceremonial which marked the marriage of the earl of Yarmouth and Miss Alice Thaw, Henry Thaw's sister, two years ago, when Dr. McEwan likewise officiated. No time was given for preparation for the cermony and no elaboration had been desired, but in a vase in the drawing room of Dr. McEwan's residence were 10 American Beauty roses, and standing up from a little china pot on the mantelpiece were 11 bewitching pink carnations.

Clouds Obscured the Sun.

Clouds obscured the sun and a fitful shower of rain fell while the wedding party emerged from the carriage and sought shelter under umbrellas complacently held aloft by courteous footmen. First came Mr. Thaw, his mother, Mrs. William Thaw; his brother, Josiah Copley Thaw, and Frederick C. Perkins. Miss Nesbit came on the arm of her stepfather, C. J. Holman, and was followed by her mother, Mrs. Holman.

Dr. McEwan had stood 20 minutes before the drawing room window gazing up Negley avenue in expectation of the nuptial party, and when they came he backed over toward the window, because there was more light there, and read the marriage service.

Miss Nesbit wore a traveling costume of dark material, which was almost hidden by a light three-quarter opera cloak, trimmed with rare lace and ornamented with Parisian floral designs. She wore a hat that indicated a slight lingering toward the winter season, and across the silken-entwined brim was a gorgeous feather of three shades of brown blending from white.

Miss Nesbit did not remove her cloak or hat. The bridegroom laid his headgear and top coat over the bannisters while he walked into the drawing room and took his position before the vase of roses. When the ceremony was concluded and the party left the parsonage it was 5:37 o'clock. Dinner was served at "Lyndhurst" and the bride and bridegroom hastened to the East Liberty station to leave for their journey east.

Miss Nesbit was formerly famous as an artists' model and posed for a number of artists in eastern cities. She was the daughter of Winfield Scott Nesbit, a prominent Pittsburgh attorney, who died a number of years ago. The young woman was devoted to musical studies and was a member of a "Floradora" company several years ago. She afterward went to Paris to complete her musical education and was a pupil of Mme. Bonini, the celebrated Italian singer. Last summer while on an automobile tour in Switzerland with Harry K. Thaw the rumor of their marriage was circulated and various stories were told intimating that they had been married. These were set at rest by yesterday's ceremony. Members of the Thaw family refused to make any comment.

License Clerk Was Accommodating.

"I issued a marriage license to Henry Kendall Thaw and Evelyn Florence Nesbit this afternoon, at a residence in the East End," said Herman L. Hegner, marriage license clerk of Allegheny county, last night.

"A messenger came to my office and escorted me to a house in the East End. I am not familiar with that section of the city and I cannot say positively what house it was or give its exact location. We went out Fifth avenue on a street car and then walked a little to one side.

"The license was issued in due form and everything was fixed up in good shape."

PEACE IS DECLARED.

Differences in St. Andrew's Episcopal Congregation Being Settled and the Terms Will Soon Be Announced.

Concessions have been made on both sides in the differences existing between th Allegheny and East End members of the St. Andrew's Protestant Episcopal church and negotiations are nearly consummated by which the church money will be divided and matters adjusted agreeably to all concerned.

The greatest point of contention, that setting forth the argument that under the church charter no congregational money could be applied outside the city limits of Pittsburgh, has been foregone, and according to one of the Allegheny members, the attorney for the East End factions has concluded that this point will not hold.

The basis of agreement will be made known in a few days, when matters have been finally adjusted, after which it is believed the congregation treasurer will be formally called upon to take over the new church site at North Negley avenue and Hampden street and plans will be considered for the erection of a handsome church on this property.

THOUGH BALKED, BEAR UP WELL

Hays and Bigelow, Failing at Harrisburg, Yet Profess the Greatest Satisfaction.

QUICK ACTION IS PROMISED

Some of the Citizens party's Greater Pittsburgh boomers returned from Harrisburg to Pittsburgh last night. Among them was Mayor Hays, who said the Citizens got what they went after, although an analysis of the bill as it passed the house of representatives shows that what the Citizens did not want, the amendments proposed by the local Republican organization, two of which they were bitterly opposed to, were adopted.

The mayor came on the 7:05 p. m. train, getting off at the Union station, with County Recorder O'Neil. Director Bigelow left the same train at East Liberty.

"The bill as it passed the house is satisfactory to us," said the mayor. "We got what we went after. It may be passed by the senate this week. City Solicitor Rodgers remained in Harrisburg to see that several minor amendments, which are, however, important to assure the constitutionality of the bill, are inserted. Mr. Rodgers talked yesterday with Gov. Pennypacker about the amendments and, as I understand it, the governor approved the city solicitor's suggestions.

Will Waste No Time.

"The city administration will lose no time in calling councils together, to insure quick action. Within two weeks after the governor has signed the bill councils will meet and a resolution petitioning the courts to fix a date for the annexation election will be passed. The bill provides that councils shall petition the courts to redistrict the wards of the city, and a resolution to that effect will be presented in councils as soon as possible under the act.

"One of Mr. Rodgers' amendments will provide that the Pittsburgh councils shall fix the tax levy and appropriations for the greater city. Mr. Rodgers will present another amendment to prevent complications in school affairs. It will provide that the boundaries of the school districts shall remain as they are, leaving to future legislation the final adjustment on uniform lines, the system in Pittsburgh being different from that in Allegheny."

The mayor said he, Director Bigelow and other representatives of the Citizens party had a half-hour's talk with Senator Penrose and I. W. Durham, the Philadelphia leader, on Monday night, previous to the meeting of the committee to which the Greater Pittsburgh bill had been referred.

Senator Penrose Was Firm.

At that meeting Senator Penrose, it has been learned from other sources, firmly told the mayor and director the bill would be amended on the lines laid down by the Pittsburgh Republican organization, namely, that the courts, and not the city councils, should redistrict the wards; that the people should have the right to petition for the annexation of Allegheny, if the councils of either city failed to adopt a resolution to that effect; that there would be no ripping and the members of Allegheny councils and Allegheny city administration should serve out their terms. Mr. Bigelow pleaded hard that the redistricting of the ward lines be left to the Pittsburgh city councils, but the state leaders were determined and Bigelow finally gave up the attempt to have the bill contain at least this one of his ideas.

The mayor and Mr. O'Neil were asked if there had been any talk of reconciling the differences between the Republicans and the Citizens, and they replied that the subject had not been discussed at the conference with Penrose and Durham and no conversation had been held on the subject with the local Republican leaders then in Harrisburg.

Director Bigelow expressed himself as satisfied with the bill as it has passed the house and showed no visible disappointment over his defeat on the propositions to have councils redistrict the greater city and to rip the Allegheny administration. The director, too, said nothing had been done in the direction of political harmony.

ENTRY WAS A SURPRISE.

Hearing in the Case of the W. C. Maxwell Company Against Its Secretary-Treasurer.

Walter C. Maxwell, formerly secretary and treasurer of the W. C. Maxwell Company, wholesale grain and feed dealers at 6316 Penn avenue, East End, was given a hearing before Alderman Toole yesterday on a charge of misdemeanor in failing to make proper entries on the books of the company. The information is sworn to by James Hemphill, a stockholder in the company, which is incorporated under the laws of Pennsylvania.

Only three witnesses weree called by Attorney John Marron, who represented the prosecution, Hemphill, who identified the books of the company; W. S. Sanderson, of the Liberty Stables Company, and A. C. Houston of the Houston Bros. Company, who testified as to paying feed bills.

Sanderson stated he had paid a bill amounting to $187 to the company, but this had been dispensed with by mutual agreement, of the attorneys, as his account had not yet been closed.

Houston identified a check for $163 which had been sent to the Maxwell company in February, 1903, in payment of a bill. This amount was found to be charged up to Houston on the proper books by Maxwell, greatly to the surprise of the prosecution. A check for $235, sent on October 26, 1904, was not on the books, but it was alleged had been entered on a company cash book by Maxwell.

The defendant was held in $5,000 bail for court, which was furnished.

Saved His Life But Lost Beer.

On a wager of a keg of beer, made with two companions, Joseph Peters, a mill worker at Otto station, attempted to swim across the Monongahela river yesterday morning. His companions followed him in a boat. In midstream he was seized with cramps and sank. After considerable effort he was dragged into the boat, taken to shore and revived.

WAITING FOR HIS MOTHER, LITTLE ONE WAS KILLED

Mrs. Hollander Was on the Car That Ran Over Her Baby Boy—Man Dropped Dead.

George M., aged 3, son of Matthew Hollander of No. 114 Knox avenue, Knoxville, was killed by a hilltop street car in Knox avenue yesterday. The boy's mother was on the car that killed him and was overcome when she learned it was her child that had been struck. The child was waiting for his mother to return home and ran in front of the car opposite his home.

Julius Schenk, aged 57, of St. Thomas street, dropped dead in Monastery avenue, South Side, yesterday from heart disease. He was a carpenter and is survived by his widow and six children.

The body of an unknown man was found in the Monongahela river yesterday at Munhall station. He was about 40 years old, 5 feet 9 inches in height and weighed about 180 pounds. The little finger of his left hand had been cut off at the middle joint.

NOT TO BE A PICNIC.

Allegheny School Controllers Propose to Curb the Pupils of the Truant School.

Attendance at the truant school is not to be considered as a picnic is the opinion of the Allegheny board of school controllers. The compulsory education committee was instructed to look into a complaint that the children had too much time at noon and made unbearable the life of residents in the neighborhood.

Louis Mendel of the Fourth ward was elected chairman of the library committee, vice Dr. Will S. Adair, elected to councils. The Misses Jessie Hutchinson and Clara Carlyle of the Seventh ward were promoted to the teachers' grammar grade.

In the Tenth and Fifteenth wards the employment of one teacher each was authorized for service in the recently created domestic science schools.

Superintendent John Morrow requested that the controllers and their friends attend the lecture on "Commercial Education" to be delivered next Friday evening by Dr. Cheesman Herrick, principal of the Philadelphia School of Commerce, in the new assembly hall of the Allegheny High school, Arch and Erie streets. President D. B. Oliver also advised attendance because of America's great industrial development.

Principal M. H. Young of the First ward was ordered paid for two and one-half days lost through attending his father's funeral. A resolution was passed authorizing an increase of $25 monthly in the salary of Charles Bernhard, clerk to the superintendent.

FOURTEEN SUICIDES.

Grewsome Record for a Month—Three Persons Murdered.

Fourteen persons committed suicide and three were murdered in Allegheny county last month. During March 157 violent deaths were reported to the coroner. Of the persons who took their lives, seven did so by shooting, three by taking carbolic acid, two hanged themselves, two cut their throats and one was drowned.

Of the other cases 30 were killed by railroads, 17 by falls, 18 by burns, six were killed in mills, four in mines, five were drowned, two were killed by elevators, two were legally hanged, one was killed in a gas explosion, one was kicked to death by a horse and one died from heat prostration.

New Spring Togs for Boys of All Ages.

With us boys' clothing is not an afterthought. We think of the boys the whole year round. Pay just as much attention to their clothing wants as we do to the needs of their elders. Perhaps a little more. The Boys' Clothing Department is adjacent to that for men, Second Floor, East, and we have been dressing Pittsburg boys long enough now to have a pretty good idea as to what they want.

Every new and faddish idea that comes to the front in boys' clothing—for the tiny gentlemen of three years, or the big boy of 16—will be found in our Boys' Clothing Department first. Later on it may be seen elsewhere, but you may count upon seeing it here first.

In view of the fact that mothers have much to say in the purchase of boys' clothing as a general rule, we endeavor to please the mothers as well as the boys, and ask them as well as their sons to come in and inspect our Spring clothing. We would like to have their opinion and to hear any comment they have to make. However, we feel pretty sure there are no flaws to be found.

We always carry a special $5.00 Suit—the J. H. Special; it is called in store vernacular—which is greatly appreciated by parents who like to have their boys look nice and who do not care to go to any great expense. Every seam is sewed with silk and the trousers have double seats and knees of the same material. See this $5.00 Special and be convinced.

Double-Breasted Suits in a variety of materials—each suit with an extra pair of trousers. $6.00.

We have about one hundred styles of Norfolk Jacket Suits to choose from—any of the hundreds as stylish a youthful suit as a boy can wear. Sizes 7 to 16 years. $5.00, $6.00, $6.50, $7.00 and up to $14.00.

Blouse Suits, Eton and Sailor Collar styles, extra shields, bloomer trousers—regular P. T. Sailor Suits, such as the sailors in Uncle Sam's navy wear. $5.00 to $10.00.

We are showing a fine line of dancing school suits, white serge and mohair—styles that you would expect to pay $10 and $12.00 for, at $8.50.

Russian Suits, Eton and Military Styles, sizes 2½ to 7 years—$5.00, $6.00 and $6.50.

Boys' Reefers of fancy homespuns and serges, sizes 8 to 10 years—unlined. $5.00.

Stylish Headgear for Boys, Big and Little.

The Spring styles in boys' hats and caps are ready. More than that. Many of the Summer styles are here, even to the straws. Many people have already bought straw hats. That's why we opened them so early. If you want the very latest and most fashionable hats for your boys, we can always show them to you and sell them to you for less money than you would pay elsewhere.

An Interesting Exhibit of "Moneybak" Silks.

Every now and then we have called our public's attention to the splendid wearing qualities of Moneybak Silks. Today we show what a fine appearance these silks have when made up. In one of our show windows we have on exhibition a number of gowns of Moneybak Peau de Soie and Taffeta. The silks were made right in our own State of Pennsylvania, but the gowns were made in Paris.

These silks have a reputation for long wear. If they don't wear as represented the money is refunded, hence the name.

We invite women generally to inspect the gowns in question, as they aptly illustrate the beauty of Moneybak Silks.

The discovery that Mrs. Phipps was sending $20,000 worth of diamonds through the mails calls to mind the fact that the enormous diamond recently found in South Africa was sent by mail to England. It was comparatively safe, for even if a person should attempt to steal it he could not well dispose of it without detection. It is, moreover, a protection to such valuable parcels that the worth of their contents is not suspected. But such protection would soon be destroyed if people should generally attempt to mail diamonds in such a careless way.

Candidate Harlan complained that his antagonist in the contest for mayor of Chicago had only one issue—immediate municipal ownership of the traction companies. But another "issue" counted in his favor, although Judge Dunne made no use of it on the stump. Mrs. Dunne has had 13 children and 10 of them are alive, so they were recently photographed in a family group. Thirteen was not an unlucky number in this case and the antipathy "Pop" Anson's family has shown to race suicide helped the Democratic ticket after the old ballplayer was nominated for city clerk. So while Harlan called for better streets, more efficient policemen and parks for children, the silent appeal of Judge Dunne's family proved the more effective argument.

Early reports that the union strikers might have been responsible for the explosion in the Leiter mine at Zeigler appear to have no foundation. The union men were first to offer their services for rescue and at least one sacrificed his life in that work. The explosion was simply due to an accumulation of gas in the mine, favored, apparently, by the fact that it is wholly shut down on Sundays. If the strike can be connected with it in any way it is by indirection, through the fact that some of the non-union men introduced to break it may have been "green" men, not familiar with explosive gases, unappreciative of the danger inherent in them and consequently neglectful of the precautions taken by miners of more experience.

New York city is to have a health census taken by means of a house-to-house canvass in which 150 or more agents are employed. They are not only to report on cases of sickness, but are to observe the sanitary condition of the premises so the department may be prepared to act. The only danger seems to be that the health officer will conflict with some other department and thus render all his work ineffective. There is too much overlapping in large cities for the most efficient work. Such an investigation would touch the building department and that governing the streets as well as the health board. But the information ought to prove valuable and Dr. Darlington is enthusiastic about it. He has frequently recommended such a census and the prevalence of meningitis hastened the adoption of the plan.

New developments appear almost daily in the affairs of the Equitable Life Assurance Company. Now it is announced that its affairs are under investigation by the New York state insurance department and it is believed that the resulting report will do much to set at rest any uneasiness that may be felt by the policy holders. The relations of the president and vice president have become so strained that the latter threatens to throw the company into a receiver's hands if he is pushed too far. To wind up the affairs of a company which is apparently so prosperous is a proposition not likely to receive serious consideration. The stockholders may have certain technical rights, but their quarrels are not to be considered beside the insurance fund held in trust for the policy holders who have been investing their savings with the company.

The rule granted by the supreme court of the District of Columbia upon the secretary of war in the Brownsville bridge case raises an issue of great importance as regards the legal rights of this species of property. It is not disputed that the national government has paramount jurisdiction over navigable waters and in the exercise of this authority the secretary of war has been empowered to regulate bridges. But when a structure has been erected, whether or not it is merely there upon sufferance, it certainly appears that equitable claims have been established and that property called into existence to satisfy public needs cannot be justly taken without compensation to gratify another class of public needs. Questions of this kind will come up in the Brownsville bridge case and the principles developed will be applicable to the Union Bridge Company and many other cases.

Through the House.

The Greater Pittsburgh bill is making rapid progress now that it has assumed satisfactory shape. The equitable character of its provisions is so manifest as to leave no opening for faction controversy and the bill commands the support of all who favor the union of the two cities. It passed the house yesterday by the overwhelming vote of 156 to 10, the negative votes being evenly divided between members of the Allegheny county delegation, who are opposed to the elimination of the separate vote clause, and scattering votes from the outside which stood with them on that issue, which was conceived in hostility to the purpose of the bill. The great majority cast for the bill is assurance of its passage by the senate. The bill is likely to become a law before the week is out.

Some changes may be made in the phraseology of the bill by the senate to perfect its form, but without any alteration in its provisions, and the immediate concurrence of the house may be expected. Governor Pennypacker is strongly in favor of the bill, which is among the measures recommended by him in his message, and everything is propitious for enactment. After many years of agitation and effort Greater Pittsburgh is now on the verge of accomplishment.

Secretary Taft "on the Lid."

The announcement made by President Roosevelt that he had left "Taft on the lid" seems to have more serious significance than if it were uttered as a mere joke, for the secretary of war has been put in charge of some very important matters. It is probable that he is more familiar with them than are other members of the cabinet, for those most likely to cause trouble, such as the Dominican receivership and the Panama canal, had received the especial attention of Secretary Taft.

It may be noted that the president's choice of his personal representative does not fall upon the secretary of the treasury, who stands next to Secretary Hay and ahead of Secretary Taft in the order of succession to the presidency, but the order of succession has nothing to do with the case, as the question is simply one of convenience. The matters chiefly engaging consideration are those with which Secretary Taft is personally familiar, and many of the details fall within his department. And the president, although absent from Washington, is still president and maintains his control and responsibility as such.

Every now and then the question is mooted whether the vice president ought not to have an inning when the president is ill or absent, but it is well settled that he occupies simply the position of heir-apparent. The case of President Garfield's long illness is conclusive on that point, for then, if there ever could be, there was a case of physical disability which would have warranted the assumption of the duties of the office by the vice president, but it is settled constitutional doctrine that the vice president cannot succeed to the presidential office in any event so long as the president lives and is in the possession of his faculties.

Turbine Ships.

The new turbine steamer Victorian has just reached Halifax from Liverpool and in spite of the newness of her machinery the ocean trip was entirely successful. It is declared that not a tremor was noticed and that the deck was as firm in good weather as the floor of a hotel. This elimination of the engine throbbing was greatly appreciated by the passengers, who are enthusiastic in praise of the new pattern of engine. The Allan Company expects to attain a speed of about 20 knots an hour and one advantage of the turbine system is that speeding is cheaper proportionately than slow travel, the reverse of conditions with the ordinary propelling power. In the engines, moreover, much room is saved by the substitution of the turbine drums for the large cylinders which occupy so much space.

The introduction of the turbine engine is certainly a radical adaptation of the power of steam, which is almost distinct enough to be called a new invention. The throbbing of the ship's machinery is one of the causes of seasickness and the removal of this disagreeable sensation is a great gain, whatever other advantages are to be secured. In the warship, where every inch of room is needed, the turbine will be most welcome.

Russia's Last Hope.

Interest in the war has now shifted from the land to the sea, since if the Russian fleet has really sailed east it must be getting close to where Admiral Togo's fleet is lying in wait. In fact, rumors have been in circulation that the scout ships of the opposing fleets have already exchanged shots in the Indian ocean. The mention of that locality puts the stamp of improbability upon the story. It is not in accordance with Admiral Togo's tactics to go so far afield and the weakness of the Japanese navy makes prudence upon his part really compulsory. In all previous engagements he has sought to fight at long range. It may even be that a general engagement will be avoided even when the Russian fleet reaches the straits, although doubtless attempts will be made to hurry it by attacking stragglers and destroying colliers. The probable aim of the Japanese admiral will be to weaken the Russian fleet as much as possible, until it is well on toward Japanese waters, when the Japanese fleet can fight close to its base.

The Russian hope that success by Admiral Rojestvensky would radically alter the situation is well founded. If the Japanese should lose the sea power, their position in Manchuria will be dangerously compromised and Russia will have good reason for confidence in her ultimate ability to defeat Japan. Loss of sea power means the loss of the base of the Japanese armies in Manchuria and the rapid paralysis of the energy of the Island Empire. On the other hand the defeat of Admiral Rojestvensky's fleet means hopeless disaster for Russia. She will be left in a condition of utter inability to strike an effective blow, and she will be no longer able to wage war, whether she makes peace or not. As the Russian fleet, upon which such momentous issues rest, makes its way toward Japan the people of that heroic country must feel like the English of the Elizabethan age, when the great armada was nearing their shores.

A New Capitol Park.

It is said no bill will be passed during this session of the legislature for the proposed extension of Capitol park at Harrisburg. It is also reported the leaders have promised to take the matter up at the session of 1907. A delay of two years or more in a matter of this kind is not vital. In fact, the postponement in this case should be an advantage. The city of Harrisburg has undertaken a comprehensive system of park improvement that is highly creditable to it. The work is in the hands of leading citizens, actuated by highest civic motives. During the interval between sessions of the legislature those persons should be able to option the properties needed for the Capitol park, on advantageous terms and be ready to present to the state a better plan than that proposed in the Fox bill of this session.

On the general proposition to give the new capitol a good perspective there will be little difference of opinion in the state. The old Capitol park is one of the most interesting spots in the state, its treatment in landscaping, in the display of arboreal specimens and in other respects being in advance of the prevailing practice at the time it was created. To carry out the scheme effectively in relation to the grand new capitol building the park should embrace the property eastward to the Pennsylvania railroad, affording an attractive view from the railroad approach to the city. The effect would be greatly enhanced, also, by creating a mall extending westward to the Susquehanna river, involving the acquisition of property between State and Pine streets, or on each side of State street, having for a central piece the soldiers' monument at State and Second streets.

It is indisputable that the great commonwealth of Pennsylvania can afford a fine setting for its state house. It bore for many years with an inadequate building until a destructive fire compelled reconstruction. During the period the old structure was made to serve the public purpose all state indebtedness was wiped out or provided for. The new capitol has been erected without incurring new debt and the park can be acquired in the same way. It should be provided. The acquisition should be free from even suspicion of private profit and the Harrisburg park board and civic society ought to be able to manage to have it so.

President's Southern Trip.

Nothing could have been more impressive and cordial than the reception extended to President Roosevelt at Louisville and the event is doubtless but the earnest of the greetings which will be given to him all along his route. Although the president was in the city only two hours the arrangements were of the most elaborate nature and every testimony was there which official zeal or popular interest could give of the pleasure afforded by his visit. His speech was happily in accord with the occasion, skillfully touching chords of emotion that were specially sensitive in their response, as when he referred to the Confederate veterans as "my comrades," and in his allusions to the united country to which every section is now attached in patriotic devotion.

There can be no doubt as to the benefit of such presidential tours, of which there have been many illustrious examples before President Roosevelt's time. They greatly promote the spread of patriotic sentiment and the affection of the people for their government. Our presidents, as a rule, have been effective in such casual addresses to popular audiences, but President Roosevelt must be credited with a special faculty for thrilling appeal to the deepest feelings of human nature. His speech at Milltown, Ind., to a gathering of workingmen, was a fine instance of such oratory, full of edification which is permanent in its effects upon character. No one could listen to his description of the type of citizenship upon which rests the future welfare of the country without feeling strengthened in sense of duty. No one can be so poor or obscure but that he may be one of those "who believe in doing their duty, in facing life, knowing that life has in it any amount that is hard, but who are going to do their best to make things right for themselves and their neighbors."

For Municipal Ownership.

Judge Edward F. Dunne, who was nominated by the Democrats, and who demanded immediate municipal ownership of the traction lines with control of other quasi-public corporations as soon as authority can be secured to obtain them, was elected mayor of Chicago yesterday to succeed Carter Harrison, also a Democrat. John Maynard Harlan, the Republican candidate who advocated temporary franchises until the plants could be improved and the courts would have decided questions about the life of franchises, was badly defeated. The people were evidently tired of temporizing, and they had reason to be impatient with lines that had given such poor service to the public, while they manipulated the stock until it was carried up to fictitious values and enriched the promoters. The average citizen voted for "immediate" ownership, in spite of the questions asked by the Republican candidate of how it was to be secured and paid for.

Municipal control of traction companies was agitated in Chicago years ago, but it seems scarcely nearer realization today than it did at the outset. Every step taken by the new mayor will be bitterly contested in the courts, so it is likely that at the end of his term he will have little to show for the promises he has made. If the lines are secured it will be at an exorbitant price out of all proportion to the real value, and then will come the test of Chicago's ability to conduct the street railway business. To be sure, Judge Dunne says that the city could not mismanage a property worse than the private company has done, but the limit had been about reached when the issues were drawn for this election and the property could hardly be in a more depreciated condition.

The election shows the tendency of the people to vote for municipal ownership without counting its cost or drawbacks. Ultimately they may realize ideals, but years of trouble are sure to precede such conditions, and during these a city like Chicago may decide to abandon the project much as Philadelphia abandoned the municipal gas plant.

It is the dictum of the oldest inhabitants that at least one snow, the "April cleaner" must come during this month. The belief is founded on observation. History repeats itself. So the sooner snow comes and goes—especially goes—the better pleased will the people be.

At the annual meeting of the Merchants and Manufacturers' association yesterday, seven new directors were elected, all representative business men. This association has had a remarkably successful career and Pittsburgh wishes it may grow stronger as it grows older.

Objections are made by the Belgians to the Dominican plan for an American receiver. This is the first discordant note from the foreign creditors. The senate gave them a precedent, however.

A prominent Washington official discloses the secret that peace in the far east is prevented by the vacillation of the czar. This secret has, apparently, been well kept by the whole world.

President Roosevelt was welcomed by Blue and Gray at Louisville yesterday and today he will be cheered by the aboriginal Reds in Indian territory. It is all one country.

Having made Greater Pittsburgh a house bill, three readings will be necessary in the senate. It should reach the governor this week, however.

Col. Ridgway has realized on his "rain and colder." The hope may now be permitted that spring will take a fresh start toward permanence.

When investigation of the Equitable Life is proposed by the New York senate, we are freshly reminded of the juicy assets of the society.

James H. Hyde talks of a receiver to wind up Equitable affairs. Well, there might be a less equitable disposition of the matter.

It is odd the czar should have so much trouble making up his mind since he has so little to make up.

Boom for American Locomotives.

It appears that locomotive tests made at the St. Louis exposition are likely to lead to a "boom" in American engines in foreign countries. An Australian order for 20 engines has just been awarded to the Baldwin locomotive works, though British, German and French manufacturers, and even local bidders had sought the contract.—Chicago Record-Herald.

Cost of Easter Hats.

An English judge has decided that $1 80 is enough for a man to pay for his wife's Easter bonnett. If the judge will migrate to this country he can come pretty near naming any office he wants, as long as the women do not vote, and the voters will see that he gets it.—Hartford Post.

Spring Goes A-Wooing.

April, beloved come, just say the word to me—
What's this I hear? Not old Winter preferred to me?
Ah, you sweet wretch, but that tale is absurd to me—
I'm your devoted, your true lover, Spring!
Come, little sweetheart, I fain would be lovering—
Why do you flout me? Those roguish smiles hovering
Peep through your fingers your rosy mouth covering,
Glancing and dancing like birds on the wing!

When you first came there was just a white drift of you—
Winter had fashioned the snowy white shift of you,
How my heart longed for the exquisite gift of you,
Dainty, reluctant, alluring and shy!
Eyes like two pools in the sunshine a-glittering,
Hair, like yourself, in the chance breezes flittering,
Lips like two birds round the heart-nest a-twittering,
Smiles on your mouth and a tear in your eye.

April, I love you—come, yield to my wooing;
The sun and the rain a love potion are brewing;
Come! Let your eyes then be violets strewing—
Oh, Sweet, to be loved you have but to be seen!
Long have I worshiped you, wooed you, and plead with you,
Praying the while that love's magic be sped with you;
Now is the time Nature wills that I wed with you—
Come! Let me weave you a kirtle of green!
—Critic.

TALKED OF IN GOTHAM

By Frank A. Parker.

NEW YORK, April 4.—The International Mercantile Marine Company has renewed its offer for lease of the new piers in the Chelsea improvement on the North river and sent a communication to Commissioner Featherson of the department of docks and ferries. A year has elapsed since the original offer was made by this company. The offer was withdrawn, the company holding that the change in commercial conditions made it impossible for the company to lay out such a large sum of money. The company then said the city's prices for leases were too high. The new piers, however, on account of their length and stability, have been found to be very desirable. The company says it will take them at a "fair price."

The company makes offers which are about the same as last year. They have offered to pay $71,250 a year for each whole pier and $35,675 for each half pier. This, the company figures, will pay all interest charged and reimburse the city for any depreciation in values. In conclusion the letter says:

"In considering the foregoing we think you should give due weight to the fact other ports have free wharfage and that the export trade from New York is decreasing. A large proportion of it is now diverted to the gulf and other points, where the cost of handling steamships is much less than at New York, due very largely to excessive terminal charges, the major portion of which is pier hire."

Mystery of Seventy-Five Years Ago.

Evidence that might lead to the unearthing of a murder mystery of probably 75 years' standing was discovered this afternoon when Hugh Reilly, a laborer in the employ of the T. P. Gallagher Contracting Company, dug up a human skull and several other portions of a skeleton in a cellar at No. 419 Eighth avenue. The house, in the cellar of which the bones were found, is over 75 years old, being one of the first three-story tenements to be built in New York city. Directly opposite, on the north side of Thirty-first street, workmen are excavating for the new Pennsylvania railroad terminal, rendering it necessary to brace the foundation. The bones were removed to the morgue and the police now are conducting an investigation into the grewsome find.

Beautiful Indian Maid a Visitor.

Miss Mamie A. Porter of Muskogee, Indian territory, is an interesting visitor in this city. Miss Porter is the eldest daughter of Gen. Pleasant Porter, chief of the Creek Indians. She attended school here during the winter and is spending some weeks sightseeing before returning to Muskogee. Gen. Porter's mother was a full-blooded Indian, and it is from his father, who was an American, that he takes the English name. His daughter is a beautiful girl. Miss Porter sympathizes with the "passing of her people," as she calls it, quaintly terming this the last act in their tragic history. "The Indian woman," she says, "is born to serve the one she loves. For that reason it is best that our women should inter-marry with the English-speaking people. Married to her own, the Indian woman sinks back into 'squawdom.'"

Will Start Gov. Folk's Boom.

The managers of the Jefferson day dinner of the Democratic club announced today they were making extraordinary efforts to obtain the attendance of Gov. Joseph W. Folk of Missouri as the guest of honor, and that they expected to succeed. Personal and political friends of Gov. Folk in Missouri have urged him to come. If Gov. Folk attends the dinner, arrangements have been made to launch his boom for the Democratic nomination for president in 1908. In fact the boom may be launched if the governor is absent. Former Mayor Robert A. Van Wyck is to be the toastmaster at the dinner and he says that Gov. Folk is the one strong, powerful personality in the Democratic party today.

More Aid Asked for Japanese.

About $18,000 has been contributed to relieve the suffering and destitution in Japan caused by that country's war with Russia. Of this sum, $10,000 has already been forwarded to Japan by the committee in charge of the relief fund, the chairman of which is Seth Low. The money is being distributed by the Evangelical alliance of Japan under the supervision of Bishop Harris of the Methodist Episcopal church, who is now in this country. The committee in charge say that recent advices warrant them in suggesting that it would be difficult to even approximately describe the terrible suffering of the multitude of destitute families of deceased soldiers and of the thousands of sick and wounded in the field.

Oldest Policy Holder Wins at Last.

William E. Shepard, who is said to have the oldest life insurance policy in the world, lies dead at his late home in Englewood, N. J. He was born in Wrentham, Mass., January 28, 1811, went to New York at the age of 19 and obtained a position with Lowell, Holbrook & Co., and five years later became junior partner of the firm. He afterward became head of the house, retaining that position until 1880. Mr. Shepard's life insurance policy, No. 11, in the Mutual Life Insurance Company of New York, is said to have been for years the oldest in the world. It was taken out February 7, 1843, the first week of the Mutual Life's existence, and read originally for $2,000. Its present value is $3,828.

Plan to Give 10,000 a Ride.

The directors and runs and tours committee of the New York Motor club met at the Press club today to formulate plans for Orphans' day, which is to be celebrated on June 7. There are 64 orphan asylums in this city and vicinity. Owing to the age of the children and distant location of most of them, it will be practicable to include in the outing list 28 of the asylums. The inmates range in number from 25 to as high as 2,200 in each. An estimate of the total number of children to be looked after on Orphans' day is hard to make at present, but it will probably not fall far short of 10,000.

QUIET OBSERVATIONS

By Erasmus Wilson.

By the hoof of the Wild Goat uptossed
From the cliff where She lay in the sun
Fell the Stone
To the Tarn where the daylight is lost;
So She fell from the light of the Sun,
And alone.

Now the fall was ordained from the first,
With the Goat and the Cliff and the Tarn,
But the Stone
Knows only her life is accursed,
As she sinks in the depths of the Tarn,
And alone.

Oh, Thou who hast builded the World—
Oh, Thou who hast lighted the Sun—
Oh, Thou who hast darkened the Tarn—
Judge Thou
The sin of the Stone that was hurled
By the Goat from the light of the Sun,
As She sinks in the mire of the Tarn
Even now, even now, even now.
—Kipling.

Are you proud of yourself?

If not, how can you expect anyone else to be proud of you?

And if you do feel a pride in yourself is it because you have done something well, or is it merely because your family name is in the blue book, or because you have had fortune thrust upon you?

Really, only those who have accomplished something by and through their own efforts are entitled to enjoy that feeling of pride which is one of the rewards of virtue.

Haven't you noticed that the men and women of whom a community feels most proud are those who have so lived that all good people respect them, have done something that has helped others to do something, and that will help and encourage others to do something that is worth while?

Good and useful people are not necessarily rich. They are earnest, persistent, practical workers along lines for which they are best fitted by taste, education and training. If it so happens that they are possessed of money they use it for the same general purpose that they use other talents, for money making is as much a talent as is the ability to preach well, and it should be used in a like spirit and for a like purpose.

* * *

It is the misuse and the non-use of talent that makes most of the trouble prevailing on the earth.

Now and then a goat knocks a stone loose that goes tumbling into the abyss below. And this stone may loosen others, and these may follow and loosen others until they have developed a regular landslide that carries all before it.

But there may be, and there usually is a measure of compensation, in that the abyss is so filled up that it becomes less dangerous.

A misstep, a carelessly spoken word, or a bit of negligence on your part may start a fellow mortal tumbling down toward a social abyss and no one can tell how many others may follow.

Nor can you plead ignorance, for in this day of schools, churches and books, such a plea will not be accepted. Don't, therefore, delude yourself with the thought that you can plead innocence through ignorance. There is no excuse for your ignorance.

In your efforts to outstrip all others in climbing social heights you will be very likely to dislodge other climbers whose holds are weak and whose footing is not strong, thus starting a human avalanch that may carry many into the abyss.

And then these hasty climbers early become exhausted, fall by the way, sooner or later to be carried into oblivion by an avalanch started by another hasty climber.

What is the bachelor girl doing?

Isn't she trying to outstrip others by leaving natural routes and climbing up by untried and more or less dangerous ways?

The bachelor girl is no longer a freak or a fad, but a reality that society must reckon with.

A woman out of place is always dangerous, dangerous not only to the few with whom she comes in close contact, but to society. If the bachelor girl is a woman out of place she is a positive menace to society, for not being fitted to her position she is likely to fail, and with her fall she is bound to carry many others along with her into the social abyss.

Some of them are evidently beginning to realize the danger of the position they have taken and will heartily welcome a rescuing force.

Mr. Quiet Observer:—I did not intend to say anything more on the subject of the bachelor girl, but when I read the advice given me by "A Real Bachelor Girl," I thought I would like to explain to her.

Dear friend, I did not start out in life for fun, as no doubt it would seem by my letter, but because I either had to do that or live on the bounty of my relatives, or else coax some man to marry me, so that I might learn to be a good housekeeper and a little more womanly. Of course, being young, I did not realize all I would have to contend with. I thought it would be all plain sailing, work would be lovely, and the world would smile. I guess I have missed the smile.

You tell me, dear bachelor girl, to go home, and I just want to tell you that if I had a home I would never have left it. I might have worked, but it would have been where I could go home every night. I think a girl can do this and still be as independent as is good for her. So many girls seem to think they can get along all right if they can only go away from home. It might do some of them good to be an orphan for awhile.

I wonder how the bachelor girls spend their spare time, if they have any, and what kind of work they do?

I wish some one would kindly tell us. I do nothing but read and sew every evening after dinner, and I do not think there is much amusement in that. There has been much discussion about the bachelor girl, but not a word about what she really does.

A STENOGRAPHER.

* * *

Mr. Quiet Observer:—The bachelor girl question has already been ably discussed in your most interesting and valuable column, but if you will kindly grant me the space I would like to "blow my horn" a little.

The God-given instinct of home-making is as deeply implanted in the human heart as is the instinct of nesting in the birds that come to us in the springtime. What nobler work can a woman do than make herself and family a happy home, the nearest approach to heaven we can ever hope for while here upon earth?

It seems to me that the opinions of "Thoughtful," given in the issue of March 31, hits the nail upon the head a little more squarely than anything else yet brought forth.

A few days ago one of your correspondents, in defending the bachelor girl, said "that the bachelor girl is just a woman, after all." Don't you think that this is the truth of the matter, that the bachelor girl is a woman the same as our mothers and grandmothers before us have been, and that the bachelor girl occupies her present position more on account of circumstances than anything else?

Increase of Righteousness.

Altogether, it must be admitted, that there is a distinct increase of righteousness among the legislatures of the year. The prosecution of boodlers, even though few of them have been landed behind prison bars, has clearly had its effect. Only cheap men have boodled, and thus corruption has been robbed of even the lone argument of the aristocrats of the trade that it is "worth while."—Baltimore American.

LORD KELVIN

By Anna R. Stratton.

Solitude, the Westinghouse mansion in the East End, is visited almost yearly by eminent people from all parts of the world, scions of royalty and men who are conspicuous in all departments of the world's progress. One of the most famous men, however, who has visited Solitude, as the guest of Mr. and Mrs. George Westinghouse, is Sir William Thomson, Lord Kelvin. One of the most distinguished scientists in the world, a man over 80 years of age and one whom the world and individuals delight to honor, the daily bulletins of his present serious illness, which are being cabled all over the world, are being watched with deep interest. Those who were privileged to meet him in 1897 when he spent several days in Pittsburgh with Mr. and Mrs. Westinghouse remember him as tall and venerable in appearance. Possibly five feet ten inches in height, he seemed somewhat shorter because of a slight stoop in his shoulders. His hair and beard were white, but his eyes were as keen and bright as ever. He was very democratic in manner.

During the last few years he visited the United States several times. In 1897 he came to Pittsburgh and made a tour of the airbrake and electric works in East Pittsburgh and Wilmerding under the guidance of George Westinghouse. The object of his visit to America at that time was to attend a meeting of the British Association for the Advance of Science which was held in Toronto, Canada. Afterward he traveled extensively through the west. Two years later he returned and was entertained by Mr. and Mrs. Westinghouse at Erskine Park, their place in Lennox, Mass., and in 1902 he was again their guest in Washington, D. C.

Scientist and Inventor.

Sir William Thomson was born in June, 1824. His father was professor of mathematics in the University of Glasgow and in 1846 the son became professor of natural philosophy in the same institution, a position he held for over 50 years. In 1845 he had graduated from Cambridge, but while still an undergraduate he had published several valuable papers and for some time was editor of the Cambridge Mathematical Journal, in which some of his most brilliant discoveries were recorded. He made remarkable discoveries in the mathematical theories of elasticity, heat, electricity and magnetism, but probably is best and most popularly known for his connection with the Atlantic cable, which but for his investigations might possibly never have been realized, or even attempted. For his invention of the apparatus by which cable messages are transmitted and received he was knighted in 1866 and in 1892 he became a peer of the realm with his present title, Lord Kelvin.

His inventions have been many, ranging from a water-tap to scientific instruments. He has made many improvements in the means employed for submarine telegraphy and has been experimenting in an enthusiastic manner with wireless telegraphy. He predicted the great advantage of utilizing the water power of Niagara Falls and when in Pittsburgh in 1897 was much interested in inspecting the machinery which was then being made for harnessing Niagara. At that time one of the enormous generators was being made ready for shipment from the Westinghouse works in East Pittsburgh.

Only a Few Million Years.

Ernest Rutherford, professor of physics in McGill university, Montreal, and a fellow of the Royal society of which Lord Kelvin was at one time president, in an article on "Radium—the Cause of the Earth's Heat," which appeared in the February number of Harper's magazine, comments on one of the most interesting lines of investigation which Lord Kelvin has conducted for over 50 years.

Mr. Rutherford says:

"About the middle of the last century, the physicists, represented by Lord Kelvin, the Professor Thomson, Tait, and Helmholtz, entered the arena of geological speculation and proceeded at once to set a limit to the duration of life on earth. Lord Kelvin has been the leader in this movement, and, in a series of remarkable papers, supplemented by a number of popular articles, he has concluded that the age of life on earth cannot probably be greater than one hundred million years.

"Although Kelvin in this movement has gained the support of the majority of physicists, his conclusions have been subjected, at different times, to a considerable amount of adverse criticism, not only by geologists and biologists, but also by some representatives of astronomy and physics.

"This controversy has gone on intermittently for the last half century. Lord Kelvin assumed that the earth was originally a very hot body and has gradually cooled down to its present state.

"In order to obtain a maximum estimate of the time required, Lord Kelvin assumed the whole earth was initially at the temperature of molten rock, and deduced that about one hundred million years would be required for the earth to cool down from that temperature to its present state."

Professor Rutherford concludes his article by saying that although certain "considerations may increase our estimate of the probable duration of the sun's heat science offers no escape from the conclusion of Kelvin and Helmholtz that the sun must ultimately grow cold and this earth become a dead planet moving through the intense cold of empty space."

WANT ENLARGED POLICE POWERS

Fight Likely in Councils Over "Raiding" Ordinance Favored by Administration.

TENDERLOIN OPEN AGAIN

A fight is promised in Allegheny councils over ordinances introduced Monday in the select branch by Richard Armstrong of the Fifteenth ward.

The first bill provides that the police may have the authority to enter and raid any house or resort known, or suspected, to be a disorderly house or place conducted for illegal or immoral purposes. In other words, it is what is known in Pittsburgh as the "raiding ordinance." Its purpose is to give the police greater powers to act against persons conducting immoral resorts in the First and Fourth wards.

The other measure empowers the police to arrest on sight any person begging, or any person known to be, or suspected of being a "crook." Its object is to give the police authority to pick up all persons thought to be suspicious persons.

The latter bill has some chance of passage, although there are some councilmen who declare that the police should not be vested with such unlimited powers. The other measure has stirred up considerable controversy, although it has not yet been acted upon, even in committee. The contention of the opponents is that no good could result from it, as it would put keepers of disorderly houses at the mercy of the police and would greatly enlarge the possibilities for grafting.

This is the third time within the past decade that such a measure has been introduced in Allegheny councils. On both former occasions the bills were defeated by large majorities, it being clearly demonstrated that the councilmen did not favor any such legislation.

The moral effect of Director Scandrett's recent order, compelling the closing of all immoral resorts in Allegheny, has dwindled considerably within the past few days. Last night the First ward had something of its old appearance. Lights burned brightly in the vestibules and even a piano could be heard here and there. The women took a chance last Saturday night and opened their doors to almost everyone who sought admittance. The women went unpunished for this and were encouraged to boldness.

Beer wagons were doing business from door to door all day yesterday and apparently there is no pretense being made at observing the order of the director. It is understood about city hall that it has been decided to let affairs take their own course in the tenderloin. The police on duty in the district have said nothing, either one way or the other, and the women evidently have taken the initiative.

Alderman Walter Wadsworth, former Councilman Henry Kline and Lou Vetter, charged with criminal conspiracy to extort money from Margaret George, will be given hearings this afternoon before Alderman Toole.

FRIEND OF T. P. SHONTS PAYS HIM HIGH TRIBUTE

Attorney William Yost, College Chum of New Isthmian Canal Commission President, Thinks Him Fit.

Theodore P. Shonts, recently appointed president of the reorganized isthmian canal commission by President Roosevelt, is not unknown to Pittsburghers. Local railroad officials have become intimately acquainted with Mr. Shonts during his 24 years of railroad managing, but his most intimate friend in Pittsburgh, and one he frequently visits, is Attorney William Yost of the Bakewell building.

Theodore P. Shonts.

The new president of the canal commission and Attorney Yost were inseparable companions and fellow students in Monmouth college, graduating together in the class of '76. Speaking of the appointment of his former companion to the presidency of the commission, Mr. Yost said, yesterday:

"Mr. Shonts and myself were bosom companions in our college days—probably from the fact that we were opposites in disposition. I was much of a book-worm, while Shonts would not burden himself with technicalities and shone brightest on public occasions when an Abraham Lincoln or George Washington speech was to be made. In the college days his home was in a small Iowa town and he was the son of a village doctor.

"He was always full of energy and a wonderful handler of men. But withal, he never took life too seriously—was practical in all things, but never burdened himself with minute technicalities. Shortly after he left college he entered the business of railroading. His first position was with a small Illinois short line, but as his energy and worth became known he rose rapidly. He is not a civil engineer, but his strength lies in his executive ability and faculty for concentrating men in carrying out his ideas. He has often visited me in Pittsburgh and on no occasion would he allow me to discuss anything more serious than the pranks of our college days. In Theodore P. Shonts I believe President Roosevelt has chosen a man among men for the particular duties which the important position calls for."

Evil of Bonnet and Auto.

"For many Pittsburghers at this time, the most potent agencies of temptation are the spring bonnet and the automobile," declared the Rev. Dr. George H. McGrew of Cleveland, during his address on "Temptation" in St. Andrew's Episcopal church at the noonday meeting yesterday. Evil, he said, found a response in the weakness of men and women, and the tempter used many agencies to carry out his purpose. Dr. McGrew will speak on "The Inner Response to Temptation" at the noonday meeting today.

INDEPENDENTS CANNOT COPE WITH STANDARD

They Claim Contracts in Indian Territory Oil Field Prevent Competition.

[BY PRIVATE WIRE TO THE GAZETTE.]

WASHINGTON, April 4.—Independent oil refiners assert that the contracts between oil producers and the Standard Oil Company in the southwestern oil fields are so drawn that the only hope for competition with the Standard is through an abrogation of the contracts by the courts. Copies of the contracts which have been entered into in the Indian Territory field have been submitted to Commissioner Garfield. The ground on which independent refiners allege the courts can annul the contracts is that they are plain violations of the Sherman act tending to establish a monopoly.

The contracts obtained both in Indian Territory and Texas show that the producers agree to sell their oil to the Standard's companies and the company obligates itself to purchase all the oil it can handle. If oil is sold to any other company or person the Standard is to receive 20 cents on each barrel of oil so disposed of.

Commissioner Garfield will leave tomorrow for Kansas, going direct to Topeka, where he will begin his inquiry into the oil industry in that field.

TOPEKA, KAS., April 4.—Chief Justice Johnston of the supreme court has issued an alternative writ of mandamus requiring T. T. Kelly, state treasurer, and E. B. Jewett, warden of the penitentiary, to appear in court April 17 and show cause why they should not issue the bonds provided for in the state oil refinery law. A decision of the validity of the law will be rendered at the May session of the court.

A Dollar's Worth Free To Any Rheumatic Sufferer

I ask no deposit—no reference—no security. There is nothing to risk—nothing to promise—nothing to pay, either now or later. Any Rheumatic sufferer who does not know my remedy may have a full dollar's worth free to try.

I willingly make this liberal offer because I know that Dr. Shoop's Rheumatic Remedy may be relied upon ALWAYS to bring the utmost relief that medicine can. Years before I discovered this remedy, I studied the nature of Rheumatism. For Rheumatism is really

Crystallized Poison!

Your blood is always full of poison—the poison you eat and drink and breathe into your system. It is the purpose of the blood to absorb and carry off this very poison. And the kidneys, which are the blood filters, are expected to cleanse the blood and send it back through the system clean, to gather more poison which, they, in turn, will eliminate.

But sometimes the kidneys fail. And sometimes, from some other cause, the blood gets so full of poison that they cannot absorb it all. This is the start of Rheumatism. The poison accumulates and crystallizes. The crystals look like little grains of sugar or of fine white sand. The blood carries them and they increase in size. Then, when it can carry them no longer, it deposits them in a joint—on a bone—anywhere.

The twinge in your leg—the dull ache in your arm on a rainy day—these are the outward signs of the unseen crystals. And the twisted limbs and unspeakable anguish of the sufferer who has allowed his symptoms to go unheeded and unattended for years—these are the evidences of what Rheumatism, neglected, can do.

Rheumatism includes lumbago, sciatica, neuralgia, gout—for all these are the results of rheumatic poison in the blood.

Plainly, the first thing to do is to remove the poison. But this is not enough. The FORMATION of the poison must be stopped, so that nature may have a chance to dissolve and eliminate the crystals which have already formed. Unless this is done there can be no cure—no permanent relief.

I searched the whole earth for a specific for Rheumatism—something that I or any physician could feel safe in prescribing—something that we could count on not only occasionally, but ALWAYS. For the ravages of Rheumatism are everywhere and genuine relief is rare.

I spent twenty years in experimenting before I felt satisfied that I had a certain remedy for this dread disease—a remedy which would not only clean out the poison, but one which would stop its formation.

Certain Relief

The secret lay in a wonderful chemical I found in Germany. When I found this chemical I knew that I could make a Rheumatic cure that would be practically certain. But even then, before I made an announcement—before I was willing to put my name on it—I made more than 2,000 tests! And my failures were but 2 per cent.

This German chemical is not the only ingredient I use in Dr. Shoop's Rheumatic Cure—but it made the remedy possible—made possible an achievement which, I doubt not, could have been made in no other way.

This chemical was very expensive. The duty, too, was high. In all it cost me $4.90 per pound. But what is $4.90 per pound for a REAL remedy for the world's most painful disease?—for a REAL relief from the greatest torture human beings know?

I don't mean that Dr. Shoop's Rheumatic Cure can turn bony joints into flesh again—that is impossible. But it will drive from the blood the poison that causes pain and swelling, and then that is the end of the pain and swelling—the end of the suffering—the end of Rheumatism. That is why I can afford to make this liberal offer—that is why I can afford to spend the FIRST dollar that Rheumatic sufferers, the world over, may learn of my remedy.

Simply Write Me

The offer is open to everyone, everywhere, who has not tried my remedy. But you must write ME for the free dollar package order. I will send you an order on your druggist which he will accept as gladly as he would accept a dollar. He will hand you from his shelves a standard sized package and he will send the bill to me. There are no conditions—no requirements. All that I ask you to do is to write—write today. I will send you my book on Rheumatism beside. It is free. It will help you to understand your case. Address Dr. Shoop, Box C 588, Racine, Wis.

Mild cases are sometimes cured by a single package.—On sale at forty thousand drug stores.

The Regal shoe business is founded on what was originally a theory, but which is now a proven truth—that direct methods are best for both buyer and seller.

We have been claiming for twelve years, while our chain of stores has been growing from one to ninety-three, that the Regal direct one-profit method has improved shoe quality by almost one-half: that it has made it possible for us to give you a $6 Regal for $3.50.

And that claim is absolutely proven true by repeated Regal tests.

Seventy-five new styles to show for it—ready for you in the 93 Regal stores, and every style in and in eight widths. That's 280 fittings to figure on as soon as you find the style that suits you best.

The new styles include the only line of ankle-fit Oxfords in town. Other manufacturers stretch their Oxfords over lasts designed and used for making their regular line of high-cut shoes. Regal Oxfords are built on special Oxford lasts. They hug the heel and cannot chafe. They snug in at the top and never "gape."

MANY MEASURES DIE IN COMMITTEE

Eminent Domain for Water Companies to Be Regulated by State Commission.

NO LEGISLATION ON LIQUOR

The Pittsburgh Gazette Bureau,
HARRISBURG, PA., April 4.

Failure to receive favorable committee action and be reported killed many important measures today. This was the last day in which bills could be placed on passage and secure final action in both branches. The corporations committee of the senate today negatived the Cook bill taking from private water companies the right of eminent domain. It had passed the house. The party leaders have decided to substitute the bill introduced by Senator McNichols, which creates a state commission which will have full charge of this matter. Gov. Pennypacker, it is said, is satisfied with the McNichols bill. Among the other bills which fell are those providing for personal registration, ballot reform, local option, the excise bill, legislative apportionment, granting by county treasurers of Brewers' licenses, Creasy's trolley-freight and granger tax bills, state fair commission bill, Capitol park extension, the insurance bills and many others of minor importance.

The result as a whole may cause a disappointment, but not surprise. At the beginning of the session The Gazette announced that there would be no liquor legislation for or against this interest, also that personal registration and ballot changes were highly improbable, and in the forecast legislative apportionment and the excise bills were included. The Capitol park scheme was practically placed on the dead line by its friends, who asked too much.

Quay Monument Bill Passed.

Chairman Francies held a meeting of the law and order committee tonight. At the request of the attorney for the liquor men it was postponed until tomorrow night. As the result is discounted, nothing will be accomplished. There is also a rumor that the Ehrhardt bills will not be pushed, but the leaders decline to confirm or deny the story.

By a vote of 141 to 17 Mr. Francies today passed the Quay monument bill finally in the house. It appropriates $20,000 for the purpose. The senate will no doubt pass the measure. Mr. Francies has been very fortunate with his legislation, and his success today clears his individual calendar.

Senator Goehring's bills providing for the annexation of boroughs also passed finally in the senate. No opposition in the house is anticipated. In the interest of the bill asking $500,000 for the Western University of Pennsylvania, McWhinney and Cook saw Senator Penrose tonight. They urged favorable action, in part at least, but received no definite promise.

This was the busiest day so far, both branches holding three sessions and the night session of the house was protracted.

Bills Passed by the House.

The following bills passed finally:

Amending the compulsory education act so as to provide that the certificate of age and ability to read and write the English language shall be issued only by the superintendent of schools in cities and boroughs, and by the secretary of the school board in rural districts.

Providing a method for placing in families and removing there from children who are declared by the juvenile court to be wards of the state, and appropriating $10,000 for the necessary expenses.

Establishing an emergency fund of $50,000, to be used by the state board of health in the suppression of epidemics.

Senate bill prohibiting the use or display of counterfeit labels and the sale, use or display of goods, wares and merchandise to which such counterfeit labels may be fixed.

Fixing the salaries of district attorneys and providing for the appointment of assistant district attorneys in counties having over 250,000 or less than 500,000 population.

Providing that public school buildings shall be properly lighted and ventilated.

The following appropriation bills were passed finally:

Huntingdon reformatory, $176,800; state game commission, $6,000; Brookville Memorial home, $10,000; Ridgeway hospital, $16,000; Titusville hospital, $14,000; Meadville hospital, $14,000.

Final Action in Senate.

The following bills were passed finally by the senate:

Amending section 1 of the act providing for the better collection of collateral inheritance taxes so as to include among the persons taking an estate or any part thereof to whom the act does not apply, the children of a former husband or wife.

Appropriating $247,456 to State college.

Providing for the running, re-location, changing, fixing and marking of county lines.

Authorizing boroughs to pay a salary to the chief burgess.

Providing that school directors be paid $10 a day and mileage for attending county school conventions.

Providing for the annexation of any city, borough, township or part of township to a contiguous city in the same county.

Licensing and regulating the keeping of employment agencies in first and second-class cities.

Among the bills that passed second reading was that abolishing capital punishment.

House bill establishing a state board of dental examiners was recommitted to committee.

The Grim automobile bill was reported out of committee with several amendments. As the bill now stands first-class townships can fix the speed limit with these municipalties anywhere between 10 and 20 miles an hour. The speed limit in cities and boroughs remains at eight miles an hour. For the first offense in violating the provisions of the bill a fine of from $10 to $25 may be inflicted, and for a second offense the penalty may be $100 fine or revocation of the license for six months. The bill also provides for lighted numbers and prohibits any one under 18 years from operating an automobile.

Wishart to Unveil Portrait.

WASHINGTON, PA., April 4.—(Special.)—It was decided today by the Washington County Medical society to celebrate its semi-centennial on May 9. Dr. Charles A. Wishart of Pittsburgh will unveil a portrait of his grandfather, while the following physicians will make addresses: Dr. John H. Musser, ex-president of the American Medical association; Dr. Adolph Koenig, president of the Pennsylvania Medical society, and Dr. George Wagoner, treasurer of the same society.

Schrontz Filed a Demurrer.

WASHINGTON, PA., April 4.—Attorneys for Councilman John F. Schrontz of the Fifth ward, against whom quo warranto proceedings have been entered in an effort to oust him from the borough council, today filed a demurrer to the answer of District Attorney Underwood, claiming that it was insufficient.

There are a great many hungry hearted women who would attend a baby sale if babies were ever offered for sale, because there are a great many wives who love children and have been told by physicians that they can never hope to nurse a child of their own.

Some of these women who have used Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription for the cure of womanly ills have been made happy mothers as a result of the cure of womanly disease and the building up of the general health.

Doctor Pierce's Favorite Prescription makes weak women strong and sick women well. It establishes regularity, dries weakening drains, heals inflammation and ulceration and cures female weakness.

"I wrote to you some time ago to get information about my case," says Mrs. Mary Lee Flanery, of Dryden, Va. "I was troubled with female weakness and pains. Received answer from you, advising me to take Doctor Pierce's Favorite Prescription and 'Golden Medical Discovery.' I took two bottles of 'Favorite Prescription' and found it did me good. I had been married four years and had no children; now I can say that our house is blessed with a little baby boy, born July 10th, by the help of God and your medicine. I praise your medicine highly.

"You can publish this letter if you wish."

HERR HAMMEL AS SHERLOCK HOLMES

Captured Much Wanted Check Forger, Thanks to the Liberality of His Girth.

POLICE HUNTED FOR MONTHS

"Billy" Hammel has turned Sherlock Holmes. He does not look like Sherlock. No person would ever suspect him of being that great character. In fact, Sherlock's whole trousers would not much more than make a patch for Mr. Hammel's nether garments.

Shortly after 4 o'clock yesterday afternoon a pleasant looking young man entered Hammel's cafe and inquired for the proprietor. He had been there several times before, stating to the attendants that Mr. Hammel was his uncle and he wanted to see him. When he finally met Mr. Hammel he forgot about the relationship or did not think it worth while mentioning. He said he wanted to get a check cashed for $20. It was drawn in favor of John Schaub and signed by John Siebert.

Now Mr. Hammel knows Mr. Siebert, the South Side contractor, and knows his writing. He did not think things looked right and suggested something to that effect to the young man. The latter explained that Mr. Siebert had given him the check for helping him to move and some other work. As the banks were closed he could not get it cashed.

Mr. Hammel suspected the young man not altogether right and urged him over to a corner where the telephones are attached to the wall. Getting the young man in the corner, Mr. Hammel spread his ample 375-pound proportions across the open end of the angle formed by the corner and held the young man a prisoner while he called up the Sieberts on the South Side. They were delighted to hear of the capture of the check man. They stated he had been working the game all over the South Side and that the police had been looking for him for months.

In a few minutes Inspector McStay of the South Side and Special Officer McAfee appeared and took the young man with them. He still protested his innocence. On the way to the South Side police station, however, he tried to get rid of a pocketbook by dropping it out of a car window. He was caught doing this and the book taken from him. In it was another check, drawn in favor of Charles Smith and signed "John Siebert."

At the South Side police station the prisoner gave his name as Charles Bernardi. He lives in Spiketown, Lower St. Clair township, but does not stay at home much. He is a miner and is 23 years of age. At the station Inspector McStay had two other checks. One for $20 was passed upon John Fischer of the South Side last Friday. One for $20 was passed on Edward Slicken last Saturday. They were in the same handwriting and when these men were asked to step in and identify the young man they did so without any trouble.

Bernardi is believed to have worked the game on a great many people. He is thought to have had a check for $125 cashed at the Hotel Wolf, McKeesport, last week. He is also believed to be the man who has passed bad checks for the last year on the South Side. Mr. Siebert is going to proceed against him for forgery. The victims who cashed his checks will also make information against him.

POWERS' DUAL TASK.

Must Defend Himself and Meet an Organized Effort to Convict Him at Any Cost.

When Caleb Powers is next called upon to plead for his life he will, as heretofore, have a double task to perform. Not only will he be compelled to convince a jury by his evidence that he is an innocent man, but he will have to meet a well-organized prosecution backed by a $100,000 fund designed to convict him. If previous methods employed against him are again attempted, he will become compelled to enter upon the heavy task of tearing to shreds a web of falsification sworn to by unscrupulous and perjured witnesses.

These strong assertions are borne out by the fact that several witnesses, who have heretofore sworn against him, have admitted their perjury, and the fact that the court of appeals of Kentucky has never countenanced this burlesque on justice.

To fairly combat these designs, Caleb Powers will be compelled to have the financial means to command a fair hearing. This necessity is unfortunate, especially under a constitution that provides for equity for all. However, the fact is there, and the money is needed to meet it. For this end The Gazette fund on behalf of Caleb Powers was established and all contributors will have their subscriptions acknowledged in these columns from day to day.

OLD CITY HALL AGLOW.

Pure Food Show Will Be Decorated With Bunting and Vividly Illuminated.

Three thousand yards of bunting have been ordered by the Retail Grocers' association for decorations at Old City hall during the coming pure food show. The contract for decorating has been let, and next week the decorators will be at work. A contract has also been let for the electric wiring, and a number of electricians will go to work inside the hall at the same time as the decorators. The association will wire to each booth and will furnish the electricity for the lighting up of the exhibits. Each exhibitor, however, may suit his own fancy as to the design of electric lighting he desires, and therefore the association does not wire the interior of the booths.

Secretary H. C. McKelvey said yesterday that but four booths remain to be disposed of, and that within the present week he will be able to announce that the entire space has been taken up. There is evidence of great interest being taken in the forthcoming show by the grocers in the surrounding towns.

THREE GIRLS ARE BITTEN BY DOGS UNDER SUSPICION

Marie Williams, daughter of Charles Williams, and Sarah Miller, daughter of C. M. Miller, of Irwin street, Hays borough, were bitten yesterday by a supposedly mad dog, which was shot, after a chase, by Henry Whittaker. Later another dog was chased into the woods by about 50 men with shotguns. At Homestead Miss Laura Rable, a clerk, was bitten on the arm by a dog, also thought to have been mad. It was later shot by the police.

Farewell Reception to John McCleod.

The committee of arrangements of the reception consisted of A. W. Duff, Capt. L. R. Hagan, J. G. Hughes, L. A. Thomas and Burgess John A. Keys.

Shot Full of Holes.

"I am 65 years old, and have been a great sufferer from headache all my life. One of Dr. Miles' circulars was left at my door, and what it contained about headache interested me, so that I determined to invest a dollar in their make of shot, and go gunning for that headache. The first charge brought it down, but I continued to shoot until the thing was shot so full of holes that I believe it will never come to life again. I consider it the work of a "good Samaritan," to spread the knowledge of what Dr. Miles' Anti-Pain Pills will do." I. F. MOORE, 1352 Fairfax Ave., Bridgeport, Conn.

REGULARS WON FINAL CONTEST

Capt. Leever's Poor Work at First Base Cost His Yanigans the Game.

ANOTHER CHANGE IS MADE

[SPECIAL TELEGRAM TO THE GAZETTE.]

HOT SPRINGS, April 4.—The itinerary of the Pirates has undergone another change. Instead of playing the Little Rock club tomorrow the team will depart in the afternoon for Paducah, Ky. The regulars will play the first game with Paducah Thursday and will then depart for Indianapolis for exhibition games Friday and Saturday, leaving the Yanigans behind to play Paducah on the same day. The two teams will meet again in Louisville Sunday and will play three games there, commencing Monday.

Goshen Sam's exhibition of how not to play the first bag was a ludicrous feature of the last game at Whittington park. Confusion reigned in the well-balanced head of the pedagogue whenever a ball was batted to him, and twice he left the sack unguarded and regular batsmen were credited with hits they did not deserve.

"Hit 'er down to Sam," became a familiar cry and Fred Clarke's merciless roasts were mingled with persistent admonitions of Pietz from the bench to "Steady yourself, old man." Leever undoubtedly lost the game for his teammates, who outbatted the regulars and even with the handicap of a blundering initial sacker almost turned the tide in the last inning. It was a good day for the pitchers, all of whom had good control and were very effective.

In the first inning, when the regulars should have been retired, Clymer scored on Clancy's out at first. In the second Carisch's hit and Leever's stupidity gave Phillippe a life, his bad throw permitting Carisch to get home. Singles by Clymer and Clarke scored the deacon. In the fourth, singles by Ritchey, Lynch and Clymer crowded the bags, and Ritchey scored on Clarke's long fly out to right. In succeeding innings the regulars were blanked and Holmes did not allow them a hit.

The Yanigans were easy pickings until the sixth, when Dobbs' safe bunt, a steal and Howard's long single gave them one run. They could not solve Case's delivery until the ninth, when Howard led off with a safety, Leever ditto and Clymer's error permitted Howard to score. McBride's single brought Sam in from second. Hillebrand drove a hot one to Ritchey, who fumbled and lost an opportunity to retire McBride at second with first and second occupied and none out. Frye attempted to sacrifice, but Tommy Lynch got under his pop-up and by a quick throw to second retired McBride. Holmes hit to right and Hillebrand attempted to reach third, but Clymer's throw nabbed him. Score:

WHAT THE INDEPENDENT PLAYERS ARE DOING

Johnstown yesterday afternoon landed one of the best catchers in the country outside of the big leagues, but Manager Atherton is keeping his name a secret, fearing that one of the clubs able to pay a larger salary may induce him to desert.

If Manager Heckert of York succeeded in getting all the men for whom he has laid lines, York would make the other clubs of the Tri-State look like "also rans." No sooner does a player make application to the York manager for a job than the fact is immediately telegraphed to the Philadelphia newspapers with the result that Heckert invariably loses his man.

Matty Broderick, the Harrisburg shortstop, who reported for duty there several weeks ago, is reported to have disappeared from that city. It is said that he is dissatisfied with the advance money tendered him and that he does not want to play third base.

Maurice Wolfe, the Frostburg pitcher, who did good work for the Newark team in the Eastern league last year, will be seen with Coatesville this season. The same club has accepted the terms of Robert McClatchie, the third baseman of Pottstown.

Manager Kelchener of the Lebanon team has landed a first-class catcher with the result that Seagraves, with the Carlisle team of last season, will be handed his release. Seagraves is weak with the stick, but his work behind the bat is away above the ordinary.

Third Baseman Connoughton and Pitcher Whiting, who signed with Harrisburg, have returned their contracts and the money advanced them. They will return to the Manchester team of the New England league.

Bobby Rothermel, who has been practicing with the Pittsburgh team in the south, has signed a contract to play with Lebanon this season. He is now on his way north with the Pirates.

CHAMPION JENKINS WILL MEET "THE RUSSIAN LION"

Russian Champion Stipulates That No Holds Be Barred and All Bouts Go to Finish.

[SPECIAL TELEGRAM TO THE GAZETTE.]

NEW YORK, April 4.—George S. Hackenschmidt, the "Russian lion," champion Graeco-Roman wrestler of the world, today agreed to meet Tom Jenkins, American catch-as-catch-can, in a finish match on the mat in this city. All the Russian stipulated was that there should be no holds barred and that the bout should go to a finish. He wants to have nothing to do with any match that is limited to a certain time.

Hackenschmidt and Jenkins are expected to agree upon all the details in a few days. Jenkins has repeatedly challenged Hackenschmidt since he was defeated by him in London.

"The lion," who is not as big a man physically as some of the big wrestlers who have been seen here, looks the perfect athlete. He is a little over six feet tall and weighs about 200 pounds. Instead of being covered by masses of gnarled and knotted muscle his great strength is supplied by long, wiry muscles that have speed as well as strength in them.

SCHENLEY CLUB WILL HAVE NOVEL RACES

New Features Will Be Introduced at the Matinees This Season—Speedway Is Useless.

The annual meeting and election of officers of the Schenley Matinee club will be held in the East End board of trade rooms, Wednesday evening, April 12, at 8 o'clock. The club will undertake much of interest to the public this year on the new Schenley track when it is completed, which is expected about July 4. Many new features will be introduced, such as pony racing, team races and many novelty events.

The membership of the club now numbers nearly 500, and the Schenley course will become the popular track for the people. Wednesdays will be asked for the regular matinees of the club. The new track and grandstand will give the sport a regulation half-mile track, splendidly equipped in every way.

The Schenley course, in connection with the speedway, will provide pretty fair opportunities for enjoying the light harness sport. Director Bigelow has done much to further the interests of the horsemen in these two directions. It is said that he is quite enthusiastic over the racing prospects on the Schenley track and intends to do some racing himself.

The Beechwood boulevard speedway is practically useless for the purposes for which it was intended under the present regulations, or rather absence of any management. There will be no speeding there by the good ones until it is properly policed. As it is, any old thing is out for a brush without regard to class. Under the present conditions the course is positively dangerous. Horses are speeded down it, and without any warning pull up and cross and recross it, utterly regardless of whether anything is behind them or not. There are no rules or regulations which apply to the course, and until there are there will be little doing in the speeding line.

POPE-TOLEDO

Hebberton Hill was selected for the great hill-climbing contest last year, when the Pope-Toledo won over everything, irrespective of horse-power, make or price in 52 2-5 seconds. This year's Pope-Toledo made this same hill yesterday in 43 seconds flat on the high gear.

Demand that the car you buy must not only take these hills on high gear, but without shifting run from 4 to 6 miles an hour behind a wagon or 50 miles an hour simply by throttle control. Moreover, Demand that the car do it easily and noiselessly. The "Quiet Mile-a-Minute Pope-Toledo" will do all these things and more. If you haven't confidence enough in the Pope Motor Car Company and us to accept these statements on our assertion, make us prove them. 'Phone any time for demonstrating car, and please act promptly, for although the factory is building 1,200 of these cars this year, its magnificent record in winning the past season every notable speed, hill-climbing, and endurance contest (over 100 first prizes) the demand is unprecedented, and we want to get in specifications for our allotment early to protect our customers.

Here is a statement we wish to make as broad, sweeping and final as the English language can express it: The Pope-Toledo will run more miles at less expense, with less fuel, less tire trouble and less adjusting than any high powered automobile in the world.

ROSE BEN BEAT SANTA CATALINA

Conditions of Last Saturday Were Reversed and the Race Was a Pretty One.

FOUL WAS NOT ALLOWED

[BY ASSOCIATED PRESS TO THE GAZETTE.]

BENNING, D. C., April 4.—The feature of the races today was a renewal of the contest between Rose Ben and Santa Catalina which reversed the defeat of the former last Saturday. Rose Ben and Santa Catalina today ran six furlongs side by side with Rose Ben's head the only advantage he possessed over his smaller competitor. They came down the middle of the track and finished in just the position they had started. Today the winner carried eight pounds more than he did Saturday, while Santa Catalina was given an addition of seven pounds.

The jockeys, Fuller on the winner today, and Baird, the winner Saturday, rode their respective mounts in both races. Baird claimed a foul, but the judges did not allow it. The additional weight made the race one second slower than that of Saturday. A steeplechase added interest to the card. In the last race the first favorite won. The track was fast and the attendance one of the largest of the meeting. Summaries:

RAPID WATER WON.

Led Field All the Way in the Country Club Handicap.

MEMPHIS, April 4.—Rapid Water, favorite, at odds of 3 to 5, led a field of five around the course and won the Country Club handicap at Montgomery park today in easy fashion from Jake Sanders, the only contender that challenged his lead throughout the race. Miss Doyle was third. Several close finishes developed, the most exciting being contested by Hyperion II. and Meadow Breeze in the second race and Critical and Uncle Charley in the third, the breadth of a hand deciding the winner in each event.

First race, 6 furlongs—Our Sister, 105, J. Martin, 6 to 5, won; Graphite, 102, Schilling, 40 to 1, second; Ametus, 107, Henry, 20 to 1, third. Time, 1:17.

TIGERS ARE READY.

Princeton Players Place Their Faith in Pittsburgh Pitcher.

PRINCETON, April 4.—(Special.)—The baseball squad indulged in a brisk practice today in preparation for tomorrow's game with Dickinson. The work of the men shows steady improvement. Helm made a good showing in the center field, and the Tigers are placing a growing confidence in Byram, the Pittsburgh boy, who promises to make a most satisfactory showing in the big games. The first spring football practice was also held, about 15 men reporting. Former Capt. Walter Foulke put the squad through a light but thorough drill, and this training, which is designed chiefly to keep the men in condition, will be continued for about two weeks.

The baseball training table will start tomorrow with the following men: Cooney, L. Doyle, Byram, D. Doyle, Cook, Bard, Wells, Reed, McLean, Watt, Forsyth, Helm, Harlan, Wister and Henry.

Homestead Gives Up McCloskey.

AKRON, April 4.—(Special.)—In his fifth bulletin issued today President Charles Morton of the Baseball Protective association announced that Homestead has waived claim to Charles McCloskey, shortstop, who is awarded to Youngstown. A bitter fight was expected in view of the record made by Manager Risher of Homestead last year, when his team was expelled from the association for refusing to give up Pitcher George Upp, whom President Gaunder awarded to Warren. The bulletin also shows that all the independent teams have paid up excepting Massillon.

May Transfer Leavenworth Team.

FAIRMONT, W. VA., April 4.—(Special.)—M. A. Ashcroft and Tom Haymond of the Fairmont baseball team, will leave in the morning for Pittsburgh to confer with Manager Kissell of Leavenworth, Kansas, with reference to bringing the Leavenworth team to Fairmont intact. Kissell, who is from Freeport, signed eleven men for the season for Leavenworth. Circumstances kept baseball out of there so the team is open. The men will probably be brought here.

Another Setback for Waynesburg.

WASHINGTON, PA., April 4.—(Special.)—The Waynesburg college management has sustained another setback. Following the cancellation of the five games arranged with Washington and Jefferson, the management of Bethany college has called off all games with the Greene county team. Bethany called off the games because the Waynesburg manager tried to reduce the guarantee.

Must Apply to Minor Leagues.

CINCINNATI, April 4.—The National baseball commission in a decision announced today suggests that Player Del Mason, who has requested that his name be stricken from the Brooklyn and Baltimore reserve list, charging that those clubs were in arrears in his pay, should make his application to the National Association of Minor League clubs, Mason being a player of the Minor League association.

Zelienople Reds Will Play All Games.

ZELIENOPLE, PA., April 4.—(Special.)—Owing to the fact that J. W. Meeder, manager of the Zelienople Reds, is temporarily located in Pittsburgh, Joe Kavanaugh of Zelienople has been chosen as his successor. All games heretofore arranged with Meeder will be played unless otherwise advised by Kavanaugh.

Well-Known Horseman Dead.

SOCIETY

MRS. J. KINSEY SMITH, wife of the Rev. Dr. Smith, the new pastor of the Shadyside Presbyterian church, will receive with Mrs. Alexander R. Peacock at her last at-home on Friday afternoon. This being the final one in the series of at-home days at "Rowanlea," the Peacock residence in North Highland avenue, special interest is attached to it and as it is the only one at which Mrs. Peacock will have had a guest of honor, it will probably be the most interesting and enjoyable of the season. As usual, the hostess will be assisted by a number of her friends, who will relieve each other at the tea tables. Among those who have been asked to aid in entertaining the guests on Friday afternoon are Mrs. Clifton A. Verner, Mrs. Daniel M. Graham of the Wilmerding Methodist Episcopal church. The attendants were Miss Rose Patterson of Homestead and William Lynch of Philadelphia. The bride was given away by her brother, Robert Johnston, and the wedding march was played by a friend of the bride, Mrs. E. A. Stockdale of DuBois. C. McCutcheon and Miss Bessie Jackson. Although the affair was one of the largest of the past few weeks, it was marked by a spirit of delightful informality. The decorations were simple, but exceedingly dainty and artistic. In the drawing room, where the receiving party stood, the chandelier was showered with pink blossoms and tulle ribbon to match. On the piano were two great clusters of pink sweet peas and roses of the same color, while the mantel was occupied by two dainty baskets of pansies and lilies of the valley, and sweet peas, tied with green gauze ribbon. The mantel in the diningroom was tastefully banked with asparagus and in the center of the table was a cluster of jonquils, the same flowers being used on the central chandelier. An informal dinner followed the reception.

Among the Clubs

THE WOMAN'S CLUB of Pittsburgh had the pleasure of hearing Henry Hornbostel speak on "Pittsburgh Architecture" yesterday. He is architect of the new Technical schools, and in speaking of the plan there he explained that the problem was the proper grouping of a great number of buildings on the piece of ground given. The main object was the tout en semble, and with it the buildings must be easily accessible and so grouped that the boys will not need to run through 15 or 20 galleries to get to a given spot. By way of comparison, the speaker mentioned the big plan of the world's fair at Chicago—for perfection and openness it has not been equaled. Buffalo tried to copy it in miniature, but the result was not so perfect; the recent world's fair at St. Louis amplified the scheme with a breadth truly American in spirit, but it lacked the key, and fell far short. Chicago had the one plan admirably conceived, keeping the same mass and height in the tout en semble, but around this perfect plan were grouped all types of architecture, so the architect hopes for the plan of the technical buildings that the general scheme will be carried through with no change. The trade school will be of brick, granite and some little terra cotta. It will be different from previous architecture here, but will not be eccentric. The speaker also discussed Iron City architecture from the viewpoint of the foreigner, mentioning the Frick building, the perfection of the court house and the type of jail as a gem in pure art. The immense porte cochere of the Union station was praised, and in ecclesiastical architecture Mr. Hornbostel mentioned as noteworthy the Emmanuel Episcopal church of Allegheny. He does not believe in pompous church architecture. After his talk club members asked questions which were answered by the lecturer. Miss Margaret Burns and Miss Jennie Haywood sang solos and were accompanied by Mrs. Edwin Miller. Mrs. James S. McKelvy, first vice president, invited the Woman's club of Pittsburgh to be her guests at the annual meeting which will be held the first Tuesday in May. In the business meeting letters of condolence were sent to Mrs. Edward Gerwig and Mrs. G. L. W. Price. Mr. Hornbostel left late last evening for New York.

Excellent Program Was Given.

The Tuesday Musical club program given yesterday at the Hotel Schenley under the direction of Mrs. Emmet Queen and Miss Florence Murdoch, was excellent. Miss Woelfel gave a beautiful interpretation of the two movements of Mendelssohn's G minor concerto, the orchestral accompaniment being played on a second piano. The choral club also rendered two very effective numbers, "The Voice of Spring," melody in F, by Rubenstein, and Bargiel's "Spring Thoughts." Others who participated were Miss Elise Hough, Miss Alice Snider, Mrs. C. A. Nolan, Miss Abel, Miss Kurtz, Miss Duffin and Miss Jane Lang. Two more concerts will be given this season, but the next program will probably not be given on April 18, as is announced in the year book.

Invitation Is Accepted.

Mrs. Edwin Sullivan, president of the Colonial club, yesterday invited the society to meet with her at her home in Fifth avenue, on April 18. The regular program will be carried out, after which a social time will follow. At the regular meeting held yesterday at the Hotel Henry, Mrs. Susan Means had charge of the literary program and members at roll call gave quotations from Edgar Allan Poe. The leader gave a biographical sketch of the poet. Mrs. Sullivan next followed with a paper, "Cavour, the Statesman;" Mrs. A. E. Thorne spoke on "Garibaldi, the Soldier," and Mrs. E. W. Locke on "Victor Emmanuel II," and Mrs. E. J. Ray on "New Publications."

Responsibilities of Parents.

"Responsibilities of Parents" were discussed at the meeting of the Civic club of Wilkinsburg, held yesterday, at the home of Mrs. Charles Fristoe. Mrs. J. Ludwig Koethen, Jr., read the address recently made by President Roosevelt at the National Congress of Mothers held in Washington, this was followed by a general discussion, in which Mrs. W. H. Phillis, Mrs. Stonerod, Mrs. Fristoe and Mrs. Amanda Jones took part. Mrs. Charles Gray presided and the meeting was large considering the rainy afternoon. The next meeting of this club will be held at the home of Mrs. W. H. Phillis, and the subject for discussion will be "Co-operation of Home and School."

Guest Day Was Observed.

Guest day was observed yesterday by the Woman's club of Ben Avon, and the principal guest was the Rev. Alexander Reid, father of one of the club members, Mrs. O. N. Sanford. He gave a talk on the trials and difficulties of early settlers in Western Pennsylvania and Eastern Ohio. He was formerly connected with the Steubenville seminary for girls and is an old resident in the Ohio valley. Mrs. J. C. Nevin sang two songs, and a social hour followed the program. Mrs. Albert Ulrich, in New Brighton road, will entertain this club on next Tuesday.

Orchestra Concert Held.

An orchestra concert was held last night under the auspices of the Woman's club of Homestead and the proceeds will be devoted to the summer vacation school in Homestead. This organization has maintained a summer school and playgrounds for two seasons. The affair last evening was quite a society event, the Duquesne orchestra played, Lewis Kennedy sang "The Toreador" from Carmen and Handel's "Honor and Arms." Nicholas Holmes gave several fine piano numbers.

Club Notes.

At the meeting of the Alliance Francaise last evening in the Twentieth Century club, M. Rene Millet spoke on the unity of the old world, emphasizing particularly the history of the countries bordering the Mediterranean. M. Millet was formerly French minister in Tunis.

Miss Kate C. McKnight and Mrs. Montgomery, the latter the probation officer of this city, have been in Harrisburg for the past two days in the interest of the bills on child labor which have been before the legislature.

EMPTIED SMOKER WITH TWO GUNS

Passengers Fled in a Panic, Leaving Their Dress Suit Cases Behind.

ITALIAN WANTED TO SLEEP

Armed with two revolvers, two razors and a hunting knife with a blade eight inches long, Frank Gross, aged 40, an Italian of Lorain, took possession of the smoking car of train No. 14 of the Pittsburgh & Western railroad, while it was passing Wildwood yesterday. After driving the passengers from the car he was locked in and placed under arrest, when the train reached this city, by Officers Free and McRoberts.

No attention was paid to Gross when he boarded the train at Lorain. As the cars neared Wildwood station several passengers noticed Gross handling two large revolvers. The passengers became uneasy when the Italian walked to the front end of the car. Drawing his guns with the coolness of a western train robber, he said:

"Me wanta de whole car."

The passengers jumped out of their seats at Gross' command. They became wedged in the door in their efforts to get out. The conductor and brakemen were summoned, but when Gross displayed his guns, they decided to let him have the car.

The conductor locked the rear end of the smoker and at the next stop he notified the baggagemaster to lock the front end. When Gross saw he had the car to himself he settled down in a seat and fell asleep. Word was sent to the trainmaster at the Baltimore & Ohio railroad station and Officers Free and McRoberts were detailed to have it out with the Italian when the train arrived.

When the train pulled in the car was surrounded by excited passengers who had left their grips and satchels behind when Gross took possession of the smoker.

"Shoot him down," was the advice the policemen received from the passengers. Free entered the car at one end and McRoberts at the other. The Italian lost his boldness at the sight of the officers, handed over his revolvers and went to the station house. He was intoxicated and told the police he wanted the car to himself so he could sleep.

SEVEN NEW DIRECTORS ON THE "M. & M." BOARD

Annual Meeting of the Big Business Organization Shows Its Great Success.

Seven new directors were chosen at the annual meeting of the Merchants and Manufacturers' Association of Pittsburgh yesterday. These directors take the place of the third of the board which retires this year. Following their choice, the new board met and organized and two new vice presidents were chosen.

The new directors are S. Ewart of S. Ewart & Co., wholesale grocers; F. K. Ong of Dilworth Bros. Co., wholesale grocers; John G. Stephenson, Jr., of Arbuthnot-Stephenson Company, drygoods; Marcus Rauh, of Rauh Bros. & Co., men's furnishings; Rowland S. Wilson of Reineke, Wilson Company, gas and water supplies; Robert Wardrop, president Peoples National bank, and A. M. Jenkinson of R. & W. Jenkinson Company, cigars.

The officers chosen by the board for the year are: President, E. J. Lloyd; first vice president, H. W. Neeley; second vice president, A. M. Jenkinson; third vice president, Robert Wardrop; treasurer, W. T. Todd; secretary and general manager, J. W. Wardrop; counsel, Stephen Stone. George A. Kelly, Jr., who was vice president last year, declined unanimous re-election. D. C. Shaw of Curry & Shaw, the former third vice president, was among the retiring directors. With the exeption of the second and third vice presidents, the officers are the same who served last year.

The annual report of the president is a summary of the work done by the association in its first year. It shows a 100 per cent increase in the active membership, which now stands at 200, and the enrollment of 2,065 associate members.

Braddock Wants a Pole Tax.

The Braddock borough council yesterday passed an ordinance requiring all traction, telephone, telegraph and electric light companies to designate their poles by a private mark. This is to aid in the collection of the pole and wire tax. Many poles are used jointly by several companies, and the ownership is conveniently shifted so that it is impossible to collect the tax. The burgess is authorized to have all unmarked poles cut down and removed.

D. J. Thayer Reappointed.

HARRISBURG, April 4.—Gov. Pennypacker today reappointed D. J. Thayer of Pittsburgh, boiler inspector of Allegheny county for two years. W. F. Murphy of Ridgway was appointed associate judge of Elk county vice Andrew Kaul deceased.

"Ben Hur" at the Nixon.

Elaborate preparations are under way at the Nixon theater for the staging of Klaw and Erlanger's stupendous production of "Ben Hur" at that playhouse next Monday evening, when a fortnight's engagement will be inaugurated. The Pittsburgh public may not be aware, but it is true, nevertheless, that the stage of this theater compares in size and appointments with the best equipped one in America. For that reason the colossal Drury Lane theater (London) production of "Ben Hur," which was especially imported to this country for the World's fair run at St. Louis last summer and the engagement just finished at the big auditorium, Chicago, will be unfolded in its entirety on the Nixon stage. Seat sale tomorrow.

PRESBYTERIES TO CONSOLIDATE

Committee Appointed to Join Two Local Presbyterian Governing Bodies.

NEW RATHSKELLER OPPOSED

Encouraged by the prospects of an early realization of a Greater Pittsburgh the Pittsburgh presbytery of the Presbyterian church, in session in the First church, yesterday afternoon appointed a committee of five to confer with the Allegheny presbytery with a view of consolidation. The committee is composed of the Revs. Dr. William L. McEwan, G. W. Montgomery, and G. M. Kerr, and Elders William M. McIntyre and H. A. Alen.

A new departure from an old custom was established by the passing of a resolution permitting local churches to spend a portion of their home mission offerings for the printing and distribution of literature among the foreign population, rather than giving all the funds to the Sabbath school board, located in Philadelphia. Trustees of presbytery were appointed as follows: The Rev. Drs. E. P. Cowan, S. J. Fisher and W. P. Schrom, and Elders Thomas Lazeal, J. C. Grey and William C. Lilley.

Anthanasious Hristoff, a Bulgarian, and a student at the Western Theological seminary, who is a member of the Second church, asked to be taken under the care of the presbytery. He claims to be an ordained minister in the Congregational church and to have preached in his native land. He says he was compelled to flee from Turkey to save his life from those opposed to Christianity, leaving behind a wife and four children. His earnings as a missionary among Croatians will not permit him to provide for his family. Presbytery voted him $50 and placed his case in the hands of the committee on credentials for investigation.

Delegates and lay members to the next general assembly were elected as follows: The Revs. G. E. Sehlbred, J. C. Laughlin, G. P. Atwell, B. R. McHatton and Vaiclav Losa; alternates, the Revs. U. S. Greves, Dr. A. H. Jolly, Dr. A. D. Carlile, O. N. Verner and H. B. Hummell; lay delegates, J. B. Safford, G. L. Applegate, J. S. McFarland, H. H. Schuette and E. B. Boyle; alternates, J. A. Libbey, O. M. Bossart and John Forbes.

During the morning session a resolution was passed authorizing the secretary to forward a communication to Judges Shafer and Kennedy of the license court protesting against the granting of a license to Thomas K. Lysinger for the new Farmers bank restaurant which faces the rear of the First church in Oliver avenue.

Another resolution was passed authorizing the sending of a telegram to Representative John Francies protesting against any amendment of the so-called "blue laws." The telegram reads as follows:

> To the Hon. John A. Francies, chairman of the Law and Order committee, Harrisburg, Pa.:
>
> The Pittsburgh presbytery, representing 75,000 Presbyterians in Allegheny and Washington counties, enters emphatic protest against the passage of the Ellis bill, No. 239, folio 1617 amending the Sabbath law, and you are authorized to present this telegram in committee.
>
> PITTSBURGH PRESBYTERY.

Presbytery adjourned after naming the Sixth church, Forbes and Murray streets, as the meeting place for the May session of presbytery on the second Tuesday in May.

FREIGHT DIFFERENTIALS ARE UP FOR SETTLEMENT

Distinguished Counsel Begin Argument Before Interstate Commission.

[BY ASSOCIATED PRESS TO THE GAZETTE.]

WASHINGTON, April 4.—Arguments were begun today before the interstate commerce commission in what is popularly known as "the differential case," one of the most important matters the commission ever has had before it. The case involves the matter of differential inland freight rates to and from North Atlantic ports. It is more than 30 years since an adjustment was reached by which the rates to New York were made the basis of those to other parts, Boston being charged the New York rate, Philadelphia being allowed a rate two cents the 100 pounds lower than New York and Baltimore a rate of three cents lower. Norfolk and New Port News have been given the same rates as Baltimore.

Last year, after a period of quietude, the controversy broke out afresh through the determination of a railway connecting the cities of Buffalo and Philadelphia to insist on a differential of four mills a bushel on grain delivered at the former point by lake vessels and transported to Philadelphia below the rate on grain of similar origin transported by rail to New York. The controversy resulted in a rate war which proved disastrous. Finally, the Merchants' Association of New York proposed to submit the whole matter of seaboard differential to arbitration and suggested the interstate commerce commission.

The suggestion was asquiesced in. The case practically has resolved itself into a contest between New York and Boston on the one side, and Philadelphia and Baltimore on the other, the former cities protesting against the differentials and the latter supporting them. Among the attorneys and other interested persons who attended the hearing today were: The Hon. John G. Carlisle, counsel, Merchants' exchange of New York; John G. Wilson, counsel, Baltimore & Ohio Railroad Company; John B. Thayer, fifth vice president, Francis I. Gowen, general solicitor and George D. Dixon, freight traffic manager, all of the Pennsylvania railroad.

Mr. Blackmar, counsel for the Merchants' Association of New York, opened the argument for New York and was followed by Mr. Daish, counsel for the Baltimore chamber of commerce, in support of the differentials. The arguments will continue for two days.

Topeka Police Arrested a Crazy Man Who Said He Had a Mission to Kill Kansas' Governor.

TOPEKA, KAN., April 4.—An insane man, who gives his name as J. Everest Worthington, was captured yesterday within a block of the state house, where he said he was going to kill Gov. E. W. Hoch. The man was unarmed, but of powerful build. Communication with him is held by means of written questions and answers, as he pretends to be deaf and dumb.

"I was inspired by Pyrus, the god of fire, to come here and kill Gov. Hoch. I have sworn eternal vengeance against all statesmen who pretend they are self-made men. One who has risen from obscurity to a high place is the worst enemy of the impecunious genteel. Therefore, I hate Hoch."

THE CIVIC FEDERATION NAMES GENERAL BOARD

NEW YORK, April 4.—The New York Civic Federation today announced its general board as follows: Cornelius N. Bliss, Nicholas Murray Butler, W. C. Douglass, Ralph M. Easley, Charles S. Fairchild, Archbishop John M. Farley, Richard Watson Gilder, Hamilton Holt, Seth Low, W. Everit Macy, Emerson McMillan, W. W. Miller, Walter H. Page, Roland Phillips, Bishop Henry C. Potter, C. T. Root, Albert Shaw, Oscar S. Straus, H. C. Watson, Thomas F. Woodlock.

Bible Study to Be Resumed.

NORTH SIDE JOBS TO BE ABOLISHED

Annexation Will Increase the Work of Assessors and Police Magistrates.

CHARTER LIMITS NUMBER

Police magistrates and city assessors will find their work much increased by the annexation of Allegheny to Pittsburgh. The charter act limits the number of assessors and police magistrates to five of each class, and the same number that now conducts the police hearings and makes the annual and triennial assessments of property in each city must do the work for both cities.

Pittsburgh and Allegheny have each five assessors, whose duty it is every three years to revise all the assessments on real estate, and every year make assessments upon new buildings. In Pittsburgh the triennial assessment is a big task, having grown rapidly in the last few years, and the addition of the city of Allegheny to the territory, without making any addition to the number of assessors, will make the assessors' job one not to be envied as it is now by many politicians.

It is true councils have the power to increase the salaries of the assessors, but under the present city charter councils cannot increase the number of assessors or reduce the amount of work they shall do. Four of the Pittsburgh assessors now receive each $2,000 and the chief assessor $2,500. Four of the Allegheny assessors now receive each $1,800 and the chief assessor $2,300.

By merging Allegheny with Pittsburgh the present positions in Allegheny will be abolished and the present positions in Pittsburgh retained. Until the advent of the Citizens party the Pittsburgh assessors each received $2,500. The salaries of all five assessors were reduced to $2,000, but the present chief assessor, A. J. Pitcairn, succeeded in having the salary of the chief assessor restored to $2,500. Similar attempts have been made at various times by the other four assessors, but without success.

Pittsburgh pays each of its police magistrates $2,000 a year, the Citizens also having reduced their salaries from $2,500. Pittsburgh is divided into five magistrate districts, and when Allegheny is annexed these districts will have to be enlarged so as to include the North Side, which now has five magistrates of her own. There are only two magistrates on the North Side, however, who are active and who receive more than a nominal salary. Samuel Abernathey, magistrate at central station, receives $1,500 a year. He is also an alderman of the First ward and has a comfortable income out of the two offices. Magistrate Frank Harkins, who conducts the hearings in lower Allegheny, receives $1,200 a year. Each of the other three North Side magistrates receive only $50 a year.

A marked improvement is proposed in the conduct of police hearings when the two cities are merged. It is proposed that the magistrates, instead of working only a couple of hours every morning, as they do now, shall sit all day so that a prisoner may have an immediate hearing if he demands it or the case requires it. Under the present system a person who is arrested and who is not able to furnish bail must remain confined in a police station until the next morning before he can get a hearing.

HURLEY IS IDENTIFIED BY TWO RANKIN GIRLS

Man Arrested on Liveryman's Complaint Alleged to Have Entered Two Houses Feloniously.

John Hurley of Rankin, who was arrested Monday night as a suspicious person, was identified yesterday by Mae McNeill and Minnie Ruhley, both of Rankin, as the man who entered their homes Wednesday night.

Hurley was arrested on complaint of A. W. Null, a liveryman, because he would not pay for buggy hire. County Detective Jere Lutz of Rankin arranged to have the two Rankin girls see Hurley at the Braddock police station. Miss McNeill made Hurley pose as she saw him in her home ascending the stairs. Then she made him say "I mean business," the words he addressed to her at the time. She positively identified him as the intruder, both as to appearance and voice. Miss Ruhley was equally positive in her identification. Miss McNeill, who lives in Harriet street, Rankin, on Wednesday night was aroused by a noise downstairs. She found a man on the stairs. He left without taking anything.

Miss Ruhley, the daughter of Mrs. Mary A. Ruhley who was killed by a railroad train two weeks ago, awakened to find a man sitting on the foot of her bed. When she rose in bed the man struck her with a beer bottle and rendered her unconscious. The same night James McNeill a brother of Miss McNeill, was knocked unconscious by a footpad along the Baltimore & Ohio railroad, while returning to his home. The same man is thought to have committed all three offenses. Hurley was committed to jail for 15 days by Burgess Purcell. When this sentence expires he will receive a hearing on two charges of burglary.

WANT A REASSESSMENT.

Braddock Borough Council and School Board Exercised Over a Deficiency.

The Braddock borough council and the school board are exercised over what they claim is a faulty and deficient assessment in the First ward. Assessor Robert Price, on the personal tax list, turned into the county commissioners 1,282 fewer names from that ward than were turned in on the previous assessment.

The school board has appointed George W. Kutscher, George L. House and E. R. Oskin a committee to co-operate with the council in petitioning for a reassessment. The school board will lose nearly $5,000 by the falling off. On the direct personal tax the school district will lose $2,564, and the state appropriation for the ward will be cut down about $2,000.

There is a healthy increase in the other wards of the borough, and the authorities claim that a falling off of $180,000 in a single ward is too great to be passed by. There is a large foreign population in the ward, and it is admitted that there has been some loss, but not to exceed 500 persons.

Strength of the Industrial Stocks the Feature in Wall Street-- Pittsburgh Coal and Crucible Preferred Rallied.

By JOHN O. BAGLIN, Financial Editor.

The strength of the industrial stocks was the feature of the New York market yesterday, and in the advance the steel stocks were most prominent. The railroad department was irregular, and at the close there were more net losses than gains. Wall street was disposed to pay some attention to Washington advices as to the outlook for the legislation that will come before the extra session of congress next October. This may seem to be a long look ahead, but large financiers, as well as national politicians, do not plan a new campaign over night and trust to luck for the outcome. On the contrary, they plan ahead, and six months is not so long to prepare for the possible effects of a reopening of the railroad rate regulation question and other problems that will come before the new congress. The passage of the stock transfer bill, imposing a tax of 2 cents a share on transfers of stock in the state of New York, appeared to be a foregone conclusion, and did not have much if any effect upon the market. London quotations for American securities were slightly lower, but the operations for foreign account were insignificant. The only foreign influence upon the domestic situation is the prevailing ease in the London money market, which is all the more noteworthy in view of the large loans recently offered in that market. In New York there was also an easier tendency to the money market, the rate for call loans declining to 2½ per cent late in the day, and closing offered at that figure at the close.

The market opened steady to firm, but sold off before the end of the first hour and then became irregular for the railroad list. Industrial stocks, however, became decidedly firm, and the buying extended all over the list. United States Steel stocks were the strongest, and the buying of these during the afternoon stimulated a cheerful feeling throughout the whole market, and really dominated the speculation. United States Steel common rose to 37, or within a fraction of the high point established last month. The preferred rose steadily until it touched 98⅝, the highest since July, 1901, the fifth month of the company's existence. It may be recalled that the highest price ever quoted was in April, 1901, when the stock reached 101⅞. This was just before the great slump to 69 on May 9. In June of that year it recovered to 100¾, but since that date the nearest the stock has been to par was yesterday afternoon, when it sold at 98⅝. The "corner" in Tennessee Coal and Iron failed to materialize, although the strong opening at 106½, reflected the fears of the shorts. Later in the day the stock sold off to 103⅜, but recovered part of the gain, only to decline at the close to 103½. All of the railroad equipment stocks, including Railway Steel Springs, advanced sharply and closed at net gains. Peoples Gas and American Smelting closed fractionally lower, but National Lead and Amalgamated Copper closed strong and higher, and Federal Smelting preferred closed at a net gain of 2¼ per cent.

As a rule the railroad stocks closed lower, the net loss in Union Pacific, Southern Pacific and New York Central averaging 1 per cent. Atchison and St. Paul closed ½ per cent lower, and the Pennsylvania group from ⅛ to ⅞ per cent lower. Rock Island developed considerable strength in the late dealings, advancing to 35½, and Southern Railway later joined the movement and advanced to 35⅜. The Eries were less active than on Monday, but the common closed slightly higher. There was an absence of news or rumor in connection with railroad stocks.

On the local exchange a strong rally occurred in Pittsburgh Coal preferred and Crucible Steel. The first named on sales of 1,500 shares rallied to 72½ and closed at the top, a net recovery of 8½ from the low price established last week. Covering of shorts was the principal factor in the movement, although there was generally a more cheerful feeling regarding the affairs of the company. The common stock closed ½ higher at 16½, sales reaching 1,310 shares. Crucible Steel common rallied to 12 and closed at 11⅞. The preferred was strong and on the purchase of 1,200 shares rose to 63½, a net gain of 1½ per cent and a recovery of 2¾ per cent from the recent low mark. By comparison with other iron and steel stocks Crucible Steel appears to be low, and it was this view that probably influenced the buying, although there is also a considerable short interest in this stock. With the exception of United States Steel preferred the remainder of the industrial list was steady to firm, but price changes were small. In the mining group 15,200 shares Ohio Tonopah changed hands at prices ranging from 34 to 39 cents a share, the final sale representing a net advance of 5 cents. The bulk of the buying is said to have been for account of Philadelphia and New York. Several small lots of bank stocks changed hands at prices unchanged to 10 points below the last previous sale.

NOTES AND COMMENT.

Dealings in Pittsburgh Coal preferred yesterday were well distributed, and it was a matter of comment that the 8-point recovery from the lowest of last week did not tempt any extensive profit-taking. Opinion on the exchange was that the rapidity of the recovery was due to shorts covering. One block of 500 shares of the common at 16½ changed hands, Carothers & Co. to Morris, Brown & Co. Other transactions in both the common and preferred were in comparatively small lots. Rumor was current of negotiations in the east, the outcome of which would be favorable to the local situation.

The rally in Crucible Steel preferred and the firmness of the common was generally ascribed to the boom in iron and steel stocks in New York, where a number of issues advanced to the highest price for more than a year. At the same time it is a fact that the decline in Crucible last week was due entirely to the weakness in the coal stocks, and the bulk of the selling is believed to have been short stock.

More than 15,000 shares Ohio Tonopah changed hands at an advance of 5 cents a share, helping to swell the total sales. Private transactions were reported in Golden Anchor to the extent of more than 10,000 shares, the price reaching $1 10, or a premium of 10 cents over par. In New York and Philadelphia Tonopah Mining has been ruling strong since the declaration of the initial dividend last week. All these influences had some effect upon Ohio Tonopah. North Butte, the newly-organized property in which the capitalists who promoted the Bisbee mines exercise control, sold as high as 28½ in New York yesterday.

From 9 o'clock this morning until 5 o'clock this afternoon the directors and officers of the Diamond National and Diamond Savings banks will receive their friends and the general public at their new banking rooms, celebrating the formal opening of their handsome new home at Fifth and Liberty avenues.

The Chicago board of trade was closed yesterday on account of the municipal election. Bradstreet's reported a decrease of 1,509,000 bushels in the world's visible supply of wheat.

Private sales of Union Natural Gas were reported yesterday at 102½.

The gross earnings of Wabash for March increased $121,119.

The Equitable Trust Company has issued a statement of conditions at the end of March showing an increase of $1,000,000 since January 1, 1904.

Clearances on the Pittsburgh stock exchange compare as follows: March, 1905, 429,738 shares, February, 1905, 458,253 shares; March, 1904, 156,728 shares. For the year ending March 31, 1905, the total clearances compare: Ending March 31, 1905, 3,300,085 shares; ending March 31, 1904, 4,024,706 shares.

The decline in interest in the New York market seemed to be due in part to the unsettling influences of the erratic fluctuations in Tennessee Coal. Prices of that stock ran up and down hill all day like a boiling liquid in a tube, and operators in the market were at a loss to determine whether the terms of the proposed merger or the distress of an uncovered short interest were responsible for the wavering motion of the stock.

According to Wall street gossip the directors of Wabash have adopted a far-reaching policy for the upbuilding of the eastern divisions of the Wabash. The entire main line from Chicago to Pittsburgh is to be double-tracked and brought up to trunk line standard in every respect. This is part of the financial plan hinted at by President Ramsey in the Wheeling & Lake Erie annual report. The $10,000,000 of notes sold last week will finance the double-tracking and a large part of the further additions to Wabash proper. The new policy aims at putting the company on a footing to compete with advantage against Lake Shore, etc. The road has been hampered in every way in competition with the Pennsylvania and Vanderbilt systems. This disadvantage is to be removed if possible.

The inquisitorial tendency of legislation and public policy toward corporations and the prevalence of investigations into their affairs came in for stock market consideration yesterday, and caused an impression of a threat to values of securities. The embittered controversy which has sprung up in the administration of the Equitable Life Assurance society and the investigation thus prompted has the effect of emphasizing this impression.

Commenting upon last week's enormous over-subscription to the Japanese war loan, the Wall Street Journal says: "It is not impertinent in this connection to remark that probably 50 per cent of the national subscriptions to this bond issue and to many other bond issues of the year are purely and simply speculation. Of our own knowledge we can say that millions of dollars worth of bonds have been bought in the last three months by investors who do not intend to hold these bonds for any considerable length of time. We do not believe that the people of the United States intend to become permanent holders of foreign bonds to any great extent. It has never been the characteristic of the American investor to pin his faith to the pledge of a foreign government. Even British consols have gone begging in this market. It is perfectly true that an international tone has been given to the bond market here during the past year by the importation of Mexican, Cuban, Japanese and Canadian government bonds, but there is nothing to indicate that the tendency is permanent. It has been based upon a loaning of the credit of our strongest underwriters to the flotation of these bonds, and this, in its turn, has been predicated upon the fact that there has been no other time in recent years when the surplus investment funds of the public of the United States aggregated the tremendous total that they reached this year. Over a period of normal years it is extremely probable that the foreign element will again largely disappear from the investments of the United States."

The prominence of the low-grade industrial stocks, even where they give evidence of strength, is regarded as an evidence that the high-grade stocks have exhausted their resources for advance, and begets suspicion of the stability of the whole market. Some of the day's abortive movements in the better class of stocks was suspected of being manipulative and designed to offset this character of the market.

The Philadelphia bank statement shows a decrease in the reserve held of $3,980,000 and a decrease in the surplus reserve of $3,035,000. The banks are now $1,469,150 above legal requirements.

Recent announcements and offers of bond issues aggregate a considerable sum, as follows: Japanese loan, $150,000,000; Pennsylvania conversion loan, $100,000,000; Vandalia, $7,000,000; Philadelphia Rapid Transit, $10,000,000, Washington Terminal, $10,000,000; total, $277,000,000.

The tone of the money market shows some relaxation in consequence of the completion of the April settlement, but not to the extent that sanguine speculators hoped, and the possibility is now faced of a considerable prolongation of the period of higher rates for interest. It is evident that many important capital issues have been planned to take advantage of the normal accumulation of reserves at this time of the year, both here and abroad, and this class of requirements will, of course, take precedence of stock market borrowing.

Following is a comparative statement of the amount and kinds of money in circulation in the United States:

| | April 1, 1905. | April 1, 1904. |

The circulation per capita on April 1 was $30.86, against $30.93 on March 1, 1905; $30.87 on April 1, 1904; $29.34 on April 1, 1903; $28.39 on April 1, 1902; $28.25 on April 1, 1901, and $26.60 on April 1, 1900.

Foreign Money Markets.

LONDON, April 4.—Money was tolerably plentiful in the market today, notwithstanding the fact that there were further repayments to the Bank of England and requirements in connection with the Japanese loan. Discounts were weak. Trading on the stock exchange was quiet and irregular. In the absence of public support consols dropped early owing to a slight feeling of nervousness regarding the Morocco situation, but they recovered later. Americans opened firm. Moderate support in the forenoon principally from Amsterdam and Berlin lifted them up to a fraction over parity. During the afternoon Wall street buying gave them an additional stimulus. After fluctuating moderately Americans closed easy. Grand Trunk was strong on the unexpected traffic increase. Foreigners were cheerful in sympathy with the tone of the continental bourses. Paris supported specialties. The recovery of Russians was due to bear covering. Imperial Japanese government 6s of 1904 were quoted at 103½. Consols for money, 91⅛. Consols for account, 91 7-16. Bar silver steady, 25⅝d an ounce. Money, 1½@2 per cent. The rate of discount in the open market for short bills is 2 per cent. The rate of discount in the open market for three months bills is 2 per cent.

PARIS, April 4.—The trading on the bourse today was steady and prices were firm in view of the more favorable prevailing view taken of the Moroccan situation and renewed peace rumors. At the close the market was firm. Russian Imperial 4s were quoted at 89.10, and Russian bonds of 1904 at 505. Three per cent rentes, 99 francs 50 centimes for the account.

BERLIN, April 4.—The tone on the bourse today was somewhat firmer. Exchange on London, 20 marks 47½ pfennigs for checks. Discount rates: Short bills, 2⅝ per cent; three months' bills, 1⅞ per cent.

ST. PETERSBURG, April 4.—Trading on the bourse today was dull. Imperial Russian 4s sagged a quarter of a point.

MARKET MET SETBACK IN UPWARD SWING

Bear Pressure Was Manifest, and as a Result Prices Were Exceedingly Irregular.

[BY PRIVATE WIRE TO THE GAZETTE.]

NEW YORK, April 5.—The Herald this (Wednesday) morning says: Pressure developed in the stock market yesterday, and opposition was brought to bear on the upward swing in which the market has recently moved. As a result, prices were exceedingly irregular, and in a majority of the high-priced standard issues weakness developed before the close. The market was again only professional, and the various conflicting and confusing movements in the industrial and railroad lists were explainable on the theory that traders had reversed their positions.

There was considerable profit-taking, but the operations of a bear clique, judging from the demand for stocks in the loan crowd yesterday, were mainly responsible for the decline. The weakness was more evident in the standard railroad stocks, which succumbed to the profit-taking and bear selling. Industrials were again active, and the strength and activity of the Steel Corporation stocks offset to a great extent the weakness in the general list in the afternoon trading.

Possibly the feeble reply made on the previous day to the threadworn rumors of an adjustment of the northwestern railroad situation and the consequent consolidations, which followed the announcement of the opinion in the Northern Securities case, was called to the attention of the bear party. The activity in the various stocks, when the news from Washington came out, was correctly described as a "soda water" rise, and had little basis other than professional operations. London, as a matter of fact, sold these issues heavily.

The passage of the mortgage tax and the stock transfer tax was loudly denounced, and the belief that the bills will be hastily rushed through the assembly exercised an unfavorable moral effect. There was more disposition, also, to pay attention to the effect of the bitter recriminations, charges and counter-charges in the Equitable's internal fight. It is admitted that the conflict has reached a stage where it has become necessary to clean house and expose the rottenness, if such exists.

FLATS AND HOUSES SOLD FOR $260,000

W. J. Elliott Secures Five Apartment Houses in the Oakland District.

ALLEGHENY SALES OF $85,000

Through the office of the Union Realty Company residence property valued at $260,000 was sold yesterday. The largest deal and one of the most important transactions of the year thus far was the sale of five apartment houses in Oakland for $200,000. Title to the properties will be secured from the Mercantile Trust Company, assignee of the Prudential Trust Company, and the buyer is William J. Elliott, who takes the properties for an investment. The buildings face in Craft avenue, Elsinore square and Kennett square, and the sites are in two plots, one facing 221 feet in Craft avenue with a depth of 125 feet, and the other, 94x125 feet, facing in Elsinore square. The buildings are all four-story structures, and were erected about three years ago by the United Real Estate and Construction Company of Philadelphia. They are known as the Craft, Kennett, Colonial and Swearingen apartments, and are among the best-equipped apartments in the city. Out of the whole number of suites in the buildings there are now only three vacant. A large power house in the rear of the Kennett apartment is included in the sale. The Union Realty Company will continue to handle the property, as they have also the exclusive renting of the Buckingham apartments in the same locality.

The Union Realty Company also sold yesterday for J. E. Booth to William J. Elliott five residences in Allegheny, for $60,000. One of the Allegheny houses is in Western avenue, one in Irwin avenue, one in Brown street, one in Rebecca street and one at Craig and Ann streets. The Penn avenue property is improved with old brick buildings. The consideration for all the properties was $60,000.

Allegheny Sales Total $85,000.

Two more sales of business property in Allegheny made yesterday show the advancing tendency of values on the North Side. The properties are on the east side of Federal street, between Lacock and Robinson streets, and brought $45,000 and $40,000 respectively. The more expensive lot is at the southeast corner of Federal street and Center alley, and measures 18.4x100 feet. It belonged to Frank McCann, who bought it in 1903 for $36,500, so that he nets $8,500 by the present deal. The other lot, of the same size, was owned by J. B. Booth, who bought it two years ago for $32,500. The lots extend back to Race alley and are improved with two three-story brick buildings occupied as stores and dwellings. They were bought by J. R. Paull, vice president of the Bank of Pittsburgh, who takes them for an investment.

John D. Houston has sold to Thomas T. Newhans, a railroad clerk, a big plot of frontage in the Twentieth ward, for $100,000. The property is at the southwest corner of Shakespeare and Beitler streets and has the following frontages: Four hundred and 16 feet on the Pennsylvania railroad, 210 feet in Shakespeare street, 270 feet in Beitler street and a width of 120 feet in the rear. A large brick house and several frame buildings constitute the improvements. The property is two squares east of the Sacred Heart Roman Catholic church, and a half square from Shady avenue. It is generally believed that the Pennsylvania Railroad Company is the buyer, as negotiations have been on for this and nearby properties for some time, and were ostensibly in the interest of the railroad company.

Hunting the Sands Heirs.

A very interesting circumstance has turned up in the sale of the Axthelm property in Third avenue, lately sold to B. C. Youngman for $40,000. On examination of the title it was found there was a cloud to be cleared up in the shape of a recognizance which had never been satisfied, at least so far as the court records show. In 1844 William Sands, the owner, died. In 1845 his estate was divided in the orphans' court and the Third avenue lot, which was then valued at $3,800, fell to John L. Sands, who obligated himself to pay the other heirs $1,800. These heirs were Jane Sands, the widow; Oscar S., Eliza and Jane A. Sands. Although it is believed the debt was paid years ago, no record of the settlement can be found. In 1865 Ernest Axthelm, who was the oldest locksmith in Pittsburgh, bought the property for about $5,000. He died in 1903, leaving the title clouded.

Under the Pennsylvania act of 1895, when a lien for the purchase money of property bought through orphans court has not been satisfied of record where presumption of payment has arisen, after a period of 21 years the owner can go into orphans court with a petition for an order directing the sheriff to silence the legal holders of the lien or their heirs, and if he cannot find them, to advertise the property, asking them why the claim should not be satisfied of record. The same holds true of an unsatisfied recognizance. Thus far no trace of any of this Sands family has been found, and it will probably fall to the lot of the orphans court to direct the county recorder to satisfy the claim on the records, thus clearing the title. Speaking of the matter yesterday, T. L. Gartner, the attorney in the case, said:

"This is the third proceeding of this kind under the act of 1895 or the previous similar act of which the county officials have any record. The number of unsatisfied mortgages and claims from 25 to 100 years old that appear on the county records is astonishing, and the work of clearing away these barriers to a title often delays deals for a long time."

Houses on Hill Bring $75,000.

Hugh Murphy has bought from Frederick Mugele 22 brick houses in Wick and Colwell streets for $75,000. The lots average 25x100 feet. The houses are small dwellings, but are all well rented, so that they pay a good income on the investment.

Through the office of Henry W. Armstrong the Columbia National bank has sold to Henry L. Austin 100x275 feet, with a two-story frame house and a frame barn, and extending from Dickson street to Ridge avenue, Ben Avon, for $11,000. The purchaser bought for a home.

I. S. Faile has bought from M. L. Thomas a residence property, 40x120 feet, on the south side of Black street, near Negley avenue, Nineteenth ward, for $13,000.

Annie O. Heider bought at sheriff's sale the Wallace property, consisting of a 15-room brick house on 50x110 feet in Callowhill street, Nineteenth ward, for $10,500. The property extends through to Mellon street and was bought for a home.

Plans for Two School Houses.

Two school buildings to cost $80,000 and $30,000 respectively will soon be on the boards for estimates. Architect Edward Stotz has plans for the former, which will be an addition to the Bradford High school house. The other building, an addition to the Latrobe public school house, was designed by Architects McCollum & Dowler.

Architect A. F. Link is taking bids on a brick office building for the Carnegie Steel Company at Donora to cost $20,000.

Architect J. Edward Keirn has plans for a brick residence for F. M. Seamans, Jr., at Uniontown to cost $30,000.

Plans are being prepared by Architect J. E. Cole for a three-story brick flat building in Knox avenue, Knoxville, to cost $20,000.

Architect Titus de Bobula has plans for a brick infirmary building for the Sisters of Mercy at Loretto.

Architect F. J. Osterling is preparing plans for a $10,000 brick house for L. F. Holtzman, to be erected in Holland avenue, Braddock, at a cost of $10,000.

Mrs. A. M. Byers will build a brick and shingle residence on Sewickley Heights from plans by Architects Hiss & Weeks of New York.

B. Scott McFarland will build a plant for builders' supplies at Economy on 50x128 feet in Wagner street, which he bought from the Fort Pitt Land Company through the Real Estate Trust Company for $2,500.

Oakland: John A. Sharp sold for H. L. Dean of Andes, N. Y., to Mary Dudredge of Allegheny a brick house on 17x87 feet at the southwest corner of Ophelia street and Kennett square, Fourteenth ward, for $4,700.

Webster avenue: McKiveen, White & Co. sold for John Londitti and Bessie Friedman to Annie E. Davis 2168 Webster avenue, Eleventh ward, a three-story brick house on 12x120 feet, for $2,900.

Elgin street: John Sykes sold for J. B. Walter to Phillip J. Wagoner 40x100 feet in Elgin street for $500.

Mt. Washington: Bella Granner sold to Dennis O'Leary an improved lot, 55x93 feet, at Kearsarge street and Grandview avenue, Thirty-second ward, for $8,250.

Mt. Washington: The Erie Land Company bought from August P. Bixler an improved lot, 120x105 feet, on the east side of Bigham street, near Sycamore street, Thirty-second ward, for $4,800.

Mt. Washington: William F. Oakes sold to F. W. Bruck an improved lot, 25x100 feet, on the north side of Sycamore street, Thirty-second ward, for $3,750.

Pearl street: Joseph Fierst sold to Anthon John an improved lot, 20x137 feet, on the northwest side of Pearl street, near Isabella street, Sixteenth ward, for $2,550.

Wilmot street: E. E. Garside sold to John Collins an improved lot, 24x105 feet, on the east side of Wilmot street, Fourteenth ward, for $2,000.

As an inducement to some large manufacturing concern the Real Estate exchange, composed of McKeesport business men, has optioned a site of 50 acres along the Youghiogheny river in Christy park and will offer it at about one-half the price asked by its owners. The property is said to be worth $5,000 an acre, but the ground will be sold at $2,800 an acre under the condition that a large manufacturing concern be established on it.

New Buildings Planned.

Building permits were issued yesterday to John F. Sweeney for 14 two-story frame dwellings on Boggs avenue, Thirty-second ward, to cost $37,800, and 11 to cost $25,300; to the Homewood school for a three-story brick and steel extension at Lang and Hamilton avenues, Twenty-first ward, to cost $47,800; D. A. Ritz, two story brick veneered dwelling on Simen avenue, Twenty-first ward, to cost $5,500; W. J. Payne, three two-story frame dwellings on Payne avenue, Thirty-first ward, to cost $5,400; S. ## NEWS FROM THE MINES.

Edward Normandeau and associates, owning a lease on a block of ground on the Treasure Vault, almost within the city limits of Idaho Springs, have made a big strike in the property, assays from which show 1.56 ounces gold, 164.50 ounces silver, with a total value of $123 75 a ton. The crevice at the point of discovery of this wealth is some three feet in width and so far as prospected indicates increased width with development. The shaft will be sunk as rapidly as possible and all mineral is being saved for shipment.

The Stratton estate has leased 37 blocks containing 180 acres to Colorado men.

The Quartzite, owned by the Diamondfield Gold Mining Company, continues to output large bodies of good ore. The lessees are working to take out all that is possible during the life of the lease. The average of the ore as it is broken down runs better than $200 a ton, while the screenings average between $500 and $600 a ton.

Telluride ore has been found by the Duplex Company in the west drift on the 300-foot level of the Searchlight mine. It is sylvanite and will assay 30 ounces in gold and 15 ounces in silver, which at current quotations gives the ore a valuation of $628 80 a ton. Searchlight is situated in the extreme southern part of Nevada and the discovery of telluride in this vicinity has an additional significance when taken in connection with the discovery of flourine ore on the Lige Harris-Bullfrog property at Bullfrog. These discoveries indicate that several large camps producing the tellurides of gold will be opened up in southern Nevada. As the greatest values in Cripple Creek were telluride, being sylvanite and calaverite found in connection with fluorine, this discovery is of considerable interest to Colorado people.

Official announcement has been made as a result of the trip of General Manager Colvin that the embargo on all freight except necessities for Tonopah and Goldfield will be raised this week. A thousand tons of mining machinery and other heavy freight along the line will now be moved as rapidly as possible. Freight is now moving and the congestion in the yards at Truckee, Reno and Sparks is rapidly lessening. The removing of the present restrictions upon freight shipments will result in a building boom in Tonopah, Goldfield and the outlying camps. Several Denver machinery and equipment houses are helped out by this order.

Railroad News.

The officials of the Baltimore & Ohio railroad gave out a statement yesterday bearing on the improvements being done on the Pittsburgh & Western. In part it reads:

"The work of constructing a new double-track line between Hasleton and Cuyahoga Falls, O., on the Pittsburgh division of the Baltimore & Ohio is progressing rapidly, and the entire line will be put into service by May 1, 1905. The old line from Hasleton to Cuyahoga Falls was 57.41 miles. By the elimination of curves and taking a more direct course the new line will be nearly six miles shorter. In constructing this new line it was necessary to relocate and reconstruct a portion of the old Painesville & Youngstown railroad, commonly known as the Trumbull & Mahoning railroad, formerly a narrow-gauge road, but not operated since the fall of 1878, and lying between Hasleton and Niles, O., 8.52 miles. The eastern terminus of the new line is at Hasleton, O., (East Youngstown), where it connects with the present line known as the Pittsburgh, Cleveland & Toledo railroad, and from there it crosses the Mahoning river three times, until it finally remains on the south side of the river through the fertile, busy and industrial-checkered Mahoning valley. The new line leaves the old Trumbull & Mahoning railroad at Niles, and at Newton Falls it crosses the east and west branches of the Mahoning river and also the present line overhead. At this point the present track is connected with the new line by a branch, so that all business from the old line between Youngstown and Newton Falls can be taken care of and the present road used as a feeder for the new one. At Niles the new line crosses both the Niles and the New Lisbon railroad (Erie branch line) and the Niles & Alliance railroad (Pennsylvania branch line) overhead. The Niles & Alliance railroad has a direct branch line connection with the new line. From Newton Falls westward the new line meets the old one at grade only at the Ravenna and Kent stations, from where it runs in a direct course to its westward terminus at Cuyahoga Falls. The new line will not have any railroad crossings at grade, while the present line between Hasleton and Newton Falls has 14 such crossings, protected by distance signals. The present line is very circuitous and located mostly on the old Pennsylvania and Ohio canal. The maximum grade westbound is 6 per cent and .55 per cent eastbound, against 3 per cent both ways on the new line. When finished it will complete a double-track between Pittsburgh and Sterling, O., 160 miles, with the exception of the Bakerstown tunnel (.3 miles). From Sterling to Sullivan, a little over 21 miles, single track remains temporarily, while there is a double track from there to Chicago Junction.

"The Baltimore & Ohio railroad is building a new passenger station at Youngstown. It will be 148 feet in length by 50 feet in width. Commodious and attractive new passenger stations are also being constructed at Charleston, Wayland, Newton Falls and Kent, O. A new freight station is also being built at Kent."

Rea to Succeed Potter.

Samuel Rea, acting president and fourth vice president of the Pennsylvania railroad, is to be made president of the Long Island road to succeed W. F. Potter, whose death occurred Sunday. The duties of the president are so important that it will be necessary to place some one in Mr. Potter's place who can proceed with the immense improvements under way without interruption. Mr. Rea will remain in charge for at least two years, and the directors of the road are surveying the field for a competent man to be made vice president. This officer will have charge of the road's operation, and he must be a man of engineering experience.

Railroad Meetings Held.

At the annual meeting of the stockholders of the Buffalo & Allegheny Valley and the Western New York & Pennsylvania railroads, held Monday in Philadelphia, E. A. Stockton was elected assistant to the comptroller, to comply with the charter of the Pennsylvania railroad, which operates the two lines. Of the Allegheny Valley, gross earnings amounting to $4,460,533, operating expenses absorbed $3,632,842. This made the net income $827,183. Fixed charges were $1,210,865, leaving a deficit for the year of $423,682, as against a surplus in 1903 of $167,594. The expenses of the Western New York & Pennsylvania were 94 per cent of the gross earnings, leaving net earnings of $277,398. There was an extraordinary deficit of $1,188,784, making the total charges to profit and loss $2,227,445. The greater part of this has been assumed by the Pennsylvania since it bought the road.

L. C. Bihler Elected Director.

At the annual meeting of the Pittsburgh, Bessemer & Lake Erie, which is operated by the Bessemer & Lake Erie, L. C. Bihler was chosen director to succeed George E. McCague, who resigned. James H. Reed was elected president; Jabez T. Odell vice president and G. W. Kepler secretary-treasurer. The directors are: L. C. Bihler, E. H. Utley, E. H. Gary, Thomas Morrison, H. A. Franks, T. H. Given, W. W. Blackburn, William N. Frew, G. W. Kepler, Jabez T. Odell, D. M. Clemson, D. G. Kerr, Thomas H. Wells, James H. Reed.

Railroad Notes.

The passenger officials of the roads entering Pittsburgh are figuring on the changes to be made in the spring schedules.

Dr. C. P. Stemen, dean of the medical college at Ft. Wayne, will deliver a lecture to the employes of the Ft. Wayne road at the Conway yards this evening. Similar lectures will be delivered at other points along the system.

The Pittsburgh passenger committee again postponed its meeting. It was to have been held yesterday, but if sufficient members are present it will be held today.

Clark Company of Pittsburgh Makes a Big Strike in Ohio

The Clark company of Pittsburgh made a big strike at the Tisserand well, near Mt. Vernon, O., yesterday, the oil spouting 50 feet above the derrick. The force of the oil burst the tubing and hundreds of barrels have been wasted. Scores of companies throughout Ohio have leases in the neighborhood.

Developments in the lower southwest fields were not enlivened by any new discoveries. All of the completions reported are confined to well defined territory. All efforts so far have failed to reveal new producing territory. Extensions to the old fields are about as hard to find as strictly new producing pools. On Church run, in Church district, Wetzel county, near Burton, the Fisher Oil Company has drilled its No. 10 on the John Maple farm through the Maxon sand and has a show for a five-barrel pumper. This is smaller than the average for that district. Very few of the producers have started at less than 30 barrels a day. In the Littleton district the Philadelphia Company has now drilled its No. 7 on the W. P. Hubbard farm through the fifth sand and found nothing in that formation. When the Gordon was drilled through a light showing of oil was developed, and it will make a five-barrel pumper from that formation.

On Salem Fork, Ten-Mile district, Harrison county, the Wallace Oil Company has drilled its test on the Chas. Lantz farm through the fifth sand and found nothing. When the fourth sand was drilled through a light show of oil was encountered and it will be shot and tested in that sand. In the Smithfield district, Wetzel county, the South Penn company has shot its No. 2 on the A. Balson farm and it responded by producing 115 barrels the first 24 hours. In the Littleton district, the same company has drilled its second test on the Sarah J. Wetzel farm through the fifth sand and the hole has filled up 300 feet with fluid, presumably from the Gordon. When drilled through, some oil was developed at that level.

West of Mannington, in Marion county, Trees & Benedum have drilled their No. 6 on the J. L. Holden farm into the 30-foot and have a show for a light producer. It may improve with deeper drilling. In the Pine Grove extention the South Penn has drilled its test on the L. C. Sapp farm 70 feet below the top of the stray and has developed no oil or gas.

On the Ohio side, in the Macksburg field, in Washington county, nothing better than light pumpers have been completed for some time. S. B. Longfellow has drilled his No. 6 on the J. J. Scarberry farm through the Berea grit and has a three-barrel pumper. S. B. Longfellow has drilled his No. 3 on the A. J. Longfellow farm into the same formation and has a three-barrel pumper. Clark & Longfellow's No. 2 on the Kellar-Stephens farm has been drilled into the Buell run sand and is producing three barrels a day. H. J. Parker & Co. have drilled their second test on the C. A. Wickham farm through the 500-foot sand and has a duster.

North of Marietta, C. R. Hatch & Co. have drilled their No. 22 on the L. B. Cone farm through the sand, and after giving it a shot will have a 40-barrel producer. In the same district, Donnelly & Co. have completed their No. 11 on the Charles Reynolds farm and have a show for a five-barrel pumper. Samuel Neale & Co. have completed their second test on the Charles R. Rowland farm and have a show for a light pumper in the first Cow Run sand.

In the Lowell district, Ranger & Co. have completed their second test on the Morganstein farm and have a duster. In the same locality, John G. Rice has completed a test on the Thompson farm and has a light gas pressure, but no oil. In the Wolf creek district the Pure Oil Producing Company has drilled in No. 22 on the J. J. Lorenz farm and has a show for a light pumper. The Triumph Oil and Gas Company has completed No. 14 on the Ruth A. Chapman farm and has a three-barrel pumper. J. J. Lorenz & Co.'s No. 5 on the Lizzie A. Palmer farm is holding up at 60 barrels a day.

Near Hopedale, Harrison county, the Oakdale Oil and Gas Company's No. 6 on the John M. Copeland farm is good for 8 or 10 barrels a day. Brown & Copeland have a show for the same kind of a producer at their second test on the W. P. Hanna farm. M. Spellacy's No. 9 on the John M. Copeland farm will make a five-barrel pumper. Wilson & Co. have a light gasser at No. 2 on the C. M. Hogg farm. F. N. Donaldson's No. 1 on the Hines farm is a gasser in the salt sand.

PRICES SETTLING DOWN IN THE LOCAL MARKETS

General Drop on Nearly All Lines and the Dealers Are Better Pleased.

Almost every line suffered a decline yesterday in the local markets. Receipts were heavy all around and there was a general cutting down. This was not the case in the cloverseed market, however, as that article is now quoted at the highest figure it has been for a couple of years. There is a decided shortage of good cloverseed and the farmer who wants to sow it this year is paying a handsome price.

Flour was much weaker yesterday and considerable shading is being done. The price did not break again, however. Sugar was reported much firmer and dealers looked all day yesterday for an advance, but none was ordered.

The bean market seems to have settled after the heavy cut of the day before, and there was no change in it yesterday. The wholesalers are generally well satisfied that the attempt to shove up the price of beans did not prove a success. They extend all their thanks to last year's big potato crop.

In green goods and produce there was a general marking down yesterday. The magnificent weather of the past two weeks has brought forward much produce of fine quality, and the market is now getting down to figures where the public will buy readily.

Butter, eggs and cheese are holding firm, the butter market improving considerably yesterday after the cut of last Monday. Eggs are somewhat of a puzzle to the dealers. Monday they were decidedly weaker, but yesterday they had firmed up again and there was no visible reason for either the weakness or the improvement.

HAY AND GRAIN.

Receipts.

Receipts of hay and grain yesterday were as follows: Pennsylvania lines, 7 cars oats, 14 cars hay, 1 car oats and corn, 1 car straw; Pittsburgh & Lake Erie, 11 cars hay, 4 cars oats, 3 cars corn; Baltimore & Ohio, 17 cars hay, 3 cars corn, 1 car straw.

LONG SESSION OF LICENSE COURT

Judges Worked Overtime in Order to Finish Retail List This Week.

DETECTIVE TAKES APPEAL

It was almost 6 o'clock before license court adjourned last evening, the long session being made necessary to enable the judges to complete the retail list this week. Judge Kennedy instructed a number of the applicants yesterday that it was not only the court's business to lay down rules for their bartenders, but to see they were obeyed. The court worked through Duquesne, East McKeesport, East Pittsburgh, Esplen, Etna, Glassport, Greentree, Hays, Heidelberg and included the first two applicants from Homestead. Today, if possible, the court will work through the balance of Homestead, Knoxville, Leetsdale, Millvale, Montooth borough, Mt. Oliver and McKees Rocks.

Louis Hasiba owns the property occupied by A. J. Pirhalla, Duquesne avenue, and appeared against Pirhalla. He said the latter's lease expires next November. The Carnegie Company is willing to give Hasiba damages for an ore dust nuisance, but wants assurance that the tenant will not also make a claim, and Pirhalla will not give such assurance.

The Westinghouse interests opposed a number of the applicants from East Pittsburgh. Daniel Goetz of 849 Braddock avenue was accused of selling to three minor boys last February. The applicant's attorney was disposed to parry Marshall's evidence. Judge Kennedy took up the matter and told Goetz with some vigor that he not only was to instruct his bartender not to sell to minors, but it was his business to see that the instructions were obeyed.

Thayer Torreyson, a former club manager of the Tri-State baseball league, is a new applicant for a license at 823 Braddock avenue.

The Rev. S. E. Irvine, pastor of the United Presbyterian church, Etna, testified that George L. Fugh's proposed saloon in Bridge street was unnecessary.

Judge Shafer asked John Spahic of 117 Butler plank road what nationality he was. The applicant replied: "I'm an Austrian."

"Oh, yes; but what kind of an Austrian?"

"A Bohemian Austrian," said Spahic.

A witness testified that the place was necessary because many of the Austrians when in an English saloon did not know how to ask for what they wanted.

Judge Shafer remarked: "They know how to ask for beer."

Attorney Stevenson got in and added, "Yes, and a job."

The witness explained that when an Austrian wanted a job he went to a foreman and gave the latter $2, $3, or $5 and went to work.

John Gruber is a new applicant for a license in Greentree. His location is on the east side of the Noblestown road. There is no licensed house there at the present time. The location was formerly the Idlewood hotel. Gruber has been manager in Hammel's place in Diamond street and has had 24 years' experience. Attorney Stevenson called attention to the fact that the remonstrance was signed by J. W. Patterson, vice president of the Wabash and Pittsburgh Terminal road.

Frederick Letecke does business at 401 Watson street, Hays borough. Last year he had it "No. 104." Stevenson wanted to know which it was. Levecke explained that the number was painted on the glass window above the doorway and that when he was inside it was "104" and when he was outside it was "401." The court shouted for order.

Gustave Geisel of 129 East Fourth avenue, Homestead, denied that he had had any trouble in his place. J. R. Bryce, a son of C. K. Bryce, the glass manufacturer, said that Geisel sold drinks to his father after he had been notified to cease. Geisel admitted under Judge Kennedy's questioning that he knew the elder Bryce to be a man of intemperate habits and yet sold to him. His honor jumped up, looked over the bench with a stern eye and promptly told Geisel that he was not fit to have a license or run a hotel—absolutely not fit.

NEW COUNTY DETECTIVE APPEALS FROM JUSTICE

Detective Joseph Kohen, Fined for Disorderly Conduct, Wants the Court to Hear the Case.

Quarter sessions court granted an appeal on petition of Chief County Detective R. G. Robinson in the case of Joseph T. Chew against County Detective Joseph Kohen, who was sued by Chew on a charge of disorderly conduct before Justice of the Peace C. B. Richards of East McKeesport, and was fined $5 and costs. Detective Robinson states the information against Kohen is not signed by anyone, nor sworn to by anyone, and that the signature of the justice is not on the transcript of the case. It is also alleged that a hearing was held in the case on March 31, and that the unnamed prosecutor was sworn and the fine then imposed on the defendant. It is alleged that Kohen did not get to the hearing at the time set, owing to a breakdown of the street cars, and that when he did arrive all witnesses were present, but the justice refused to reopen the case to hear his side.

An answer was filed by Attorney C. C. Brock in the suit filed by Lewis S. Brock against C. C. Brock and Frank P. Iams to recover money alleged to be due the plaintiff in a suit over stock, in which Brock and Iams were his attorneys. The answer says that the attorneys were retained under an agreement in which they were to get as fees one-half of the sum recovered above $2,500. The case was carried through all the courts. Brock admits that he was ill part of the time, but says that Iams saw that the work was not neglected. They recovered $18,779 75, of which, under the agreement, $8,185 37 was retained.

A bill in equity has been filed by the Brighton Laundry Company to compel John Hinkle, a driver, to make an accounting. It is said that the drivers are the only persons who know the customers; that Hinkle has been charged with work amounting to $8,258 28 and has turned in $6,469 31.

The defense was reached yesterday in the case of Charles P. Collingwood and his wife, Mrs. Kate Collingwood, against Dr. O. C. Gaub to recover damages for alleged improper use of the X-rays. The plaintiffs put a number of witnesses on the stand who testified to the manner of using X-rays. The defense succeeded in bringing out that the physical condition of the patient had a great deal of influence on the effect of the treatment. When the defense opened it asked for a compulsory non-suit, which was refused.

A verdict for the defendant was given by the direction of the court in the case of L. O. Hays, Sr., against the Forest Oil Company yesterday. Hays asked for $25,000 damages for alleged breach of contract. A verdict for the defendant was also given in the slander suit of Silas E. Beatty against J. W. Hubbard.

Caroline Schmidbauer by her will filed yesterday leaves an estate of $40,800 to her son and William Mason, a grandson. Attorneys O'Brien & Brawner represent the estate.

A decree in divorce was granted in the case of Rose Reas against Michael Reas on ground of cruelty.

The following suits in divorce were filed: Thomas McDonough against Charlotte McDonough, charging that the wife made life so burdensome that he was forced to leave home; Dennis Molyneaux against Ellen Molyneaux, desertion, and Harvey E. Rinnel against Emma P. Rinnel, desertion and infidelity.

A petition in bankruptcy was filed by James H. Powers and Frank L. McCarthy of Altoona, trading under the name of Powers & McCarthy. The liabilities of the firm are $22,300 14, with assets of $10,747 32. In the individual petitions neither petitioner has any liabilities and each has assets amounting to $300. A like petition was filed by Jennie Clarke, a cook, of Erie. She gives her debts as $284 and her assets as $11.

A petition in involuntary bankruptcy was entered against the William Gray Distilling Company of Grays Landing, Greene county, Pa. The petitioners are Alexander McMahon of Monessen and Rush Lake and S. S. Robertson of Pittsburgh. Claims amounting to $1,808 are filed.

George M. Coe, a real estate broker, entered suit against Harry E. Shirk and Frank Metcalf. The plaintiff alleges he was hired by the defendants to secure mortgages for them, which he did. His fees, he said, were $275, which he has never received, and which payment, he alleges, has been refused.

In putting your estate in the hands of The Safe Deposit & Trust Company, of Pittsburgh, Fourth avenue and Wood street, you secure integrity, unquestioned responsibility and wise, judicious and continuous management. Write for booklet.

STREET CAR EMPLOYES TO HOLD MASS MEETING

Terms Offered by Pittsburgh Railways Company Will Be Passed Upon.

The climax in the dispute between the Pittsburgh Railways Company and the members of division No. 85, Amalgamated Association of Street and Electric Railway Employes, will be reached tomorrow night, when the rank and file will attend a mass meeting in Old City hall, to take action on the terms offered by the company to the union men. If the men accept the proposition made by General Manager John Murphy, the dispute will be practically a closed incident for another year; but if they reject the terms and the company refuses to make further concessions, the matter will be serious.

It was stated yesterday President James D. Callery refused to grant any more concessions than promised by Murphy and that the conference committee was very much disappointed.

The committee realized it was useless to hold any further conferences with the officials and decided to make a report of the terms offered by the company. The meeting will be held in relays. The first will open at 8 p. m. and the second at 1 a. m.

PRESBYTERY HELD SESSION.

Westmoreland Branch of U. P. Church Met in East McKeesport.

Meetings were held yesterday morning, afternoon and evening in the East McKeesport United Presbyterian church by the spring session of the Westmoreland presbytery of the United Presbyterian church. The morning and afternoon session were devoted to hearing reports of officers and committees and the requests for aid made by missions.

A public conference was held in the evening, after which the Rev. C. E. Paxton of Irwin spoke on "Foundations of Revivals," and the Rev. E. C. Hawes of Braddock discussed "The Revival in Wales." Special music was furnished by the church choir and the Sterling quartet.

Labor Leader Appointed.

COLUMBUS, O., April 4.—Gov. Herrick has appointed D. P. Rowland of Cincinnati a member of the board of penitentiary managers to succeed Capt. Rowland is a carpenter, a prominent labor leader and member of the present state house of representatives.

Burglars Wrecked Postoffice.

GREENSBURG, April 4.—(Special.)—Burglars early this morning broke into the postoffice at Herminie and after dynamiting the safe secured $100 in money and stamps. An adjoining store was looted, the burglars hauling their plunder away in a wagon. The postoffice was wrecked.

POINTS OUT MISTAKES OF THE LEGISLATORS

Gov. Pennypacker Vetoes Two Bills Because of Carelessness in Preparation.

[BY PRIVATE WIRE TO THE GAZETTE.]

HARRISBURG, April 4.—Want of care in the preparation of the bill to prevent the killing of calves which are diseased or are under four weeks of age, and the selling of their flesh as food is the chief reason which Gov. Pennypacker gives for vetoing this bill today. The governor regrets that the bill cannot be approved, since the subject is a very proper one for legislation.

The governor calls attention to an oversight by the legislature in a special message which he sent to both houses this evening, a copy of which follows:

A joint resolution under date of April 6, 1903, was passed at the last session of the general assembly directing a commission consisting of the governor and the two United States senators from Pennsylvania to select a suitable silver service "to be presented to the battleship Pennsylvania" and providing further "that a committee be appointed consisting of five members of the senate and ten members of the house of representatives to arrange the presentation exercises and to participate therein."

The commission performed their duty and caused to be designed and manufactured a silver service in every way suitable for the object intended. It is now in the possession of the board of public grounds and buildings, who have had it insured. So far as I have been able to learn, the committee of the senate and house of representatives have not been appointed, as the resolution directed, and I deem it my duty to call your attention to the matter.

He also vetoed the bill granting a pension to J. H. Pershing, because it contains statements of facts the accuracy of which there has been no means of ascertaining.

THREE MEN KILLED BY AN EXPLOSION

BRIDGEPORT, CONN., April 4.—In a terrific explosion that blew to pieces one of the brick buildings of the Union Metallic Cartridge Company, shortly before the close of the day's work today, three men were instantly killed. They were John Meary, Michael Hurley and William Bayliss, workmen.

Firemen Guard a Street.

ROCHESTER, PA., April 4.—(Special.)—Following a battle this morning at Ambridge in which bricks, stones and streams of water were the weapons, firemen of the town are tonight guarding Merchant street to prevent workmen, employed by the Liberty Land Improvement Company, from tearing up the pavement to lay street car tracks. An injunction will probably be asked tomorrow.

CENTRAL PENNSYLVANIA MINING SCALE SIGNED

Operators Agreed to Last Year's Rate Under Protest—Work to Be Resumed Today.

[BY ASSOCIATED PRESS TO THE GAZETTE.]

ALTOONA, April 4.—After a lengthy conference of the wage scale committee, representing the operators and miners of the Central Pennsylvania bituminous coal field, the former signed last year's scale under protest.

The scale is based upon 63 cents a ton for pick mining. The operators claim that conditions in the competitive coal fields do not justify the payment of the old scale. The miners, however, refused to recede from their demands for last year's scale and the operators state that, rather than assume the responsibility of bringing on a strike, they submitted to the miners' demands.

Work, which was suspended on March 31, will be resumed in the mines tomorrow.

Wanted on Bigamy Charge.

AKRON, O., April 4.—(Special.)—With a bigamy charge against him Joseph D. Innes of Port Huron, Mich., is sought by the Akron authorities. Innes married Mrs. Dora O'Neill, a widow here, a year ago, and he made frequent mysterious trips to Port Huron. His wife was finally told the man had a wife and several children in Port Huron and Innes was indicted for bigamy. He left, supposedly going west. Mrs. O'Neill was today granted a divorce. She is said to have given Innes several thousand dollars before he disappeared.

MR. E. S. WILLARD IN "PROFESSOR'S LOVE STORY"

J. M. Barrie's Delightful Comedy Presented by the Actor and a Fine Company.

J. M. Barrie did not write a great play, but he set forth a beautiful and appealing version of the old, old story when he wrote "The Professor's Love Story." There is an added touch of romance and an access of interest in love that comes to a man of mature years. As Mr. Barrie has made one of his characters say: "It is usually a pretty serious case when a man past 40 falls in love." Withal Barrie's skill in weaving the story of Tom Goodwillie's love, it is to be doubted whether it would be saved from suggestion of the ridiculous in the hands of any but an actor of great gifts. Mr. E. S. Willard has been compelled to keep the comedy in his repertoire because the public accept him as the ideal professor. The cause for this acceptance was strengthened at the Nixon last night. Mr. Willard played with all the perfect finish of his capital art. Not a detail is left incomplete. The unconscious and absent-minded student, immersed in his literary work, yet strangely disturbed because of the coming love, is so naturally and humorously depicted as to leave the portrayal flawless. Mr. Willard has a beautiful voice, its tones and inflections are dramatically perfect. The human naturalness of his methods are equally contributory to the excellence of his work. He never pushes the expression of a mood or the revelation of an emotion too far, so that it becomes obviously "acting." This knowledge is sometimes called technique. Whatever it is, no actor on our contemporary stage is more richly endowed with it than E. S. Willard. His Professor Goodwillie was last night all that it has ever been, and more, for the actor is year by year ripening his art and growing more and more certain in his mental and physical poise. It is a charm to see him in any role, and not a few people insist that this pathetically love-stricken professor is his best.

It is unfortunate, when these things are considered, that Mr. Willard should neutralize the full effect of his art by the support of a company that in no particular measure is up to his artistic stature, and in some important points actually falls to the level of mediocrity. Mr. Stallard's Henders in the Barrie play is a fine piece of work, and the Dowager of Miss Angell is clever and in harmony with the picture. Of somewhat less excellence are the parts of Effie and Dr. Cosens, played by Miss Linden and Mr. Cane, respectively. Otherwise Mr. Willard's fellow players were hopelessly inadequate. This is plain speech and not intended as unkindly toward the players, but it is due Mr. Willard's big, admiring public that he should be taken sharply to task for the kind of support he permits himself in work that is, in his case, so rarely artistic and satisfying. Mr. Willard has been especially unfortunate in his feminine leads since he parted company with Marie Burroughs and Maud Hoffman. Miss Maud Feely was pretty, but inadequate artistically. Miss Lonnon, his present leading lady, is a young actress of great sincerity, but she almost spoiled Mr. Barrie's comedy last night by playing Lucy White without any reference at all to the psychology of the role as Barrie created it. Instead of an innocent maiden whose unconscious charms ensnare the mature heart of the professor, she was quite a scheming young woman from the very start, with that evident intention obviously in view.

Customer.

Realizing that a great many persons do not care to purchase silverware owing to the prices charged by retailers, Friend arranged with a prominent manufacturer to supply him with a very large quantity to be given Absolutely Free of charge to customers.

With every purchase amounting to $50 or over, on which $10 is paid at the time of purchase, we give a beautiful plush case containing GENUINE ROGERS' SILVERWARE, comprising knives, forks and spoons—one complete set in each case.

The picture accompanying affords an idea of this gift, but does not portray the beauty of the case or the exquisite silverware contained therein.
